THE SCALABRINIAN MISSIONARIES AT MOUNT CARMEL SINCE 1905

Our Lady of Mt Carmel, is served by the Congregation of the Missionaries of St. Charles – Scalabrinians – .
We are an community of Catholic religious serving migrants and refugees of different cultures, religions and ethnicities in 32 countries.
The Congregation was founded in Italy
on November 28, 1887,
by Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini (1839-1905),
bishop of Piacenza (Italy).
Our missionary focus is to be migrants with the migrants and to be in mission with people on the move,
with a special priority for the poorest
And neediest migrants.

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL —MISSION STATEMENT

We are a faith community bound by the Grace of God the Father who adopted us all as beloved children through Baptism. We journey as brothers and sisters inspired in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, nourished with the Eucharist and strengthened by the love of the Holy Spirit.
Encouraged in the practice of our Catholic Tradition, we experience and honor the maternal protection of Our Lady of Mount Carmel while joyfully celebrating the religious practices of our ancestors in Faith.
Heartened by the zealous ministry of the Missionaries of St. Charles (Scalabrinians), we strive to create a welcoming space were justice for all and the wellbeing of God's people become the inspiration in our efforts to build God's Kingdom.

NUESTRA SEÑORA DEL MONTE CARMELO — VISIÓN

Somos una comunidad de fe vinculada por la Gracia de Dios Padre, que nos ha adoptado como hijos amados por el Bautismo.
Caminamos como hermanos y hermanas inspirados en el Evangelio de Jesucristo, nutridos con la Eucaristía y fortalecidos por el amor del Espíritu Santo.
Alentados en la práctica de nuestra Tradición Católica, experimentamos y honramos a la protección materna de Nuestra Señora del Monte Carmelo, celebrando alegremente las prácticas religiosas de nuestros ancestros en la Fe.
Animados por el celo ministerial de los Misioneros de San Carlos (Scalabrinianos), nos esforzamos por crear un espacio de bienvenida donde la justicia para todos y el bienestar del pueblo de Dios nos inspiran en nuestros esfuerzos para construir el Reino de Dios.

EPIPHANY SUNDAY & MIGRATION WEEK. In this first Sunday of the new year, we celebrate the manifestation of Baby Jesus-God, as the light of nation to entire world, with the Magi who went to adore him. I'd like to express my heartfelt gratitude for all your dedication, participation, commitment and active fellowship to OLMC in the past year and to communicate my best wishes for a fruitful journey of faith for you all in the coming 2020. I pray that the Baby Jesus who reveals Himself to the Magi continue overpouring His abundant blessings on your family and you throughout the year. Today, we also start the Migration Week in the Church of USA. It is my desire that this week motivates us to respond to the call of our bishops. The Catholic Church in the United States will celebrate National Migration Week, from January 5-11, 2020. The theme for this year's celebration is "Promoting a Church and a World for All," which reflects the need for Catholics to be inclusive and welcoming to all our brothers and sisters. It is a call for unity to stand in solidarity with and care for those who are excluded and marginalized. Welcoming the newcomer and promoting a church for all counters what Pope Francis has referred to as "a globalization of indifference," which has led to many of us to ignore the cries of the poor, turn our backs on the marginalized, and remain indifferent to those struggling to find a better life. We are called to be an active Church in support of all of God's children, for "the Church which 'goes forth'... can move forward, boldly take the initiative, go out to others, seek those who have fallen away, stand at the crossroads and welcome the outcast" (Evangelii Gaudium, 24). It is with this ideal in mind – that we call for a church that welcomes, protects, promotes, and integrates all, including immigrants and refugees. These four verbs have been used by Pope Francis to frame our obligations toward migrant populations. As he expressed in his message:

Welcoming means, above all, "offering broader options for migrants and refugees to enter destination countries safely and legally." We must nurture societies that aim as much as possible to include, rather exclude. A culture of encounter that emphasizes humanity and inherent human dignity best counters anti-immigrant sentiment and welcoming is a vital step in that journey.

Protecting migrants "may be understood as a series of steps intended to defend the rights and dignity of migrants, independent of their legal status." The Catholic Church has long emphasized the importance of protecting the human dignity of migrants, both through the implementation of humane policies and through their accompaniment.

Promoting essentially means a "determined effort to ensure that all migrants and refugees – as well as the communities which welcome them – are empowered to achieve their potential as human beings, in all the dimensions which constitute their humanity." Of importance here is our obligation to institute practices and policies that will promote and preserve the integrity of the family, reaffirm family reunification, and make allowances for family members to work following their arrival to new destination countries.

Integrating emphasizes the "opportunities for intercultural enrichment brought about by the presence of migrants and refugees." Although the initial act of welcoming migrants is an important step, it is imperative that we go further and take the necessary steps that will help them to become active, participating members of our communities. Let us take some time during the upcoming National Migration Week to reflect on how we can better welcome, protect, promote, and integrate migrants living in our midst. How can we counter the globalization of indifference that affects us all, to some degree or another? What policies can we promote that will affirm the dignity of migrants and better secure the common good? How do we work more fully to promote a Church for all? I pray that these questions inspire us to continue witnessing the spirit of the gospel. HAPPY NEW YEAR and many BLESSINGS.

NEW LIFE MONTH

In our nation approximately 1 million abortions are performed each year. The aborted babies aren't the only victims. Their mothers, who in many cases were pressured into the abortion, are also victims. Sooner or later they experience horrible grief and depression. At The Women's Centers we try to enable women struggling with problem pregnancies to give birth and save them from grieving later.

DOMINGO DE EPIFANIA Y SEMANA DEL MIGRANTE. En este primer domingo del año nuevo, celebramos la manifestación del Niño Jesús-Dios, como la luz de las naciones para todo el mundo, con los Magos que vinieron a adorarlo. Me gustaría expresar mi sincera gratitud por toda su dedicación, participación, compromiso y activo servicio a la Iglesia de Monte Carmelo, durante el año pasado y comunicarles mis mejores deseos de un fructífero camino de fe para todos ustedes en este año 2020. Ruego que el el Niño Jesús que se reveló a los Magos continúe derramando Sus abundantes bendiciones a toda su familia y a cada uno de ustedes durante todo el año. Hoy, también comenzamos la Semana del Migrante en la Iglesia de los Estados Unidos. Es mi deseo que esta semana nos motive a responder al llamado de nuestros obispos. La Iglesia Católica en los Estados Unidos celebrará la Semana Nacional del Migrante, del 5 al 11 de enero de 2020. El tema de la celebración de este año es "Promoviendo una Iglesia y un Mundo para Todos", que refleja la necesidad de que los católicos sean inclusivos y acogedores hacia todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Es un llamado a la unidad para solidarizarse y cuidar a los excluidos y marginados. Acogiendo con beneplácito al recién llegado y promoviendo una Iglesia para todos como nos invita Papa Francisco para superar "la globalización de la indiferencia", evitando lo que nos ha llevado a muchos de nosotros a ignorar los gritos de los pobres, dar la espalda a los marginados y permanecer indiferentes ante aquellos que luchan por encontrar una vida mejor. Estamos llamados a ser una Iglesia activa en apoyo de todos los hijos de Dios, porque “la Iglesia que 'sale' ... puede avanzar, tomar la iniciativa con valentía, a buscar a los que se han alejado, ponerse de pie en la encrucijada y bienvenida a los marginados ”(Evangelii Gaudium, 24). Con este ideal en mente, llamamos a una Iglesia que acoja, proteja, promueva e integre a todos, incluidos los migrantes y los refugiados. El Papa Francisco ha utilizado estos cuatro verbos para subrayar nuestras obligaciones hacia las poblaciones migrantes. Como expresó en su mensaje:

Acoger con beneplácito significa, sobre todo, "ofrecer opciones más amplias para que los migrantes y refugiados ingresen a los países de destino de manera segura y legal". Debemos cultivar sociedades que tengan como objetivo incluir, en lugar de excluir. Una cultura de encuentro que enfatiza la humanidad y la dignidad humana inherente contrarresta mejor el sentimiento y la acogida anti-inmigrantes es un paso vital en ese viaje. La protección de los migrantes "puede entenderse como una serie de pasos destinados a defender los derechos y la dignidad de los migrantes, independientemente de su estatus legal". La Iglesia Católica ha enfatizado durante mucho tiempo la importancia de proteger la dignidad humana de los migrantes.

Promover esencialmente significa un "esfuerzo decidido para garantizar que todos los migrantes y refugiados, así como las comunidades que los acogen, estén capacitados para alcanzar su potencial como seres humanos, en todas las dimensiones que constituyen su humanidad". Aquí es importante nuestra obligación instituir prácticas y políticas que promuevan y preserven la integridad de la familia, reafirmen la reunificación familiar y permitan que los miembros de la familia trabajen después de su llegada a nuevos países de destino. La integración enfatiza las "oportunidades para el enriquecimiento intercultural generadas por la presencia de migrantes y refugiados". Aunque el acto inicial de acoger a los migrantes es un paso importante, es imperativo que avancemos y tomemos los pasos necesarios que los ayudarán a ser activos miembros participantes de nuestras comunidades. Tomemos un tiempo durante la Semana Nacional del Migrante para reflexionar sobre cómo podemos acoger, proteger, promover e integrar mejor a los migrantes que viven en nuestro medio. ¿Cómo podemos contrarrestar la globalización de la indiferencia que nos afecta a todos, en un grado u otro? ¿Qué políticas podemos promover que afirmen la dignidad de los migrantes y aseguren mejor el bien común? ¿Cómo trabajamos más plenamente para promover una Iglesia para todos? Rezo para que estas preguntas nos inspiren a continuar testimoniando el espíritu del evangelio. FELIZ AÑO NUEVO y muchas BENDICIONES.

MES DE LAS VIDA NUEVA

En nuestra nación hay aproximadamente un millón de abortos cada año. Los bebés abortados no son las únicas víctimas. Sus madres, las cuales en muchos casos se sin tieron forzadas de abortar, son también víctimas. Temprano o tarde ellas se sienten un remordimiento horrible y una depresión muy fuerte. En los Centros Para La Mujer, nosotros tratamos de ayudarles a esas mujeres que se encuentran con embarazos difíciles, para que ellas puedan dar a luz a sus bebés, y no sufrir el dolor de remordimiento después.

DOMENICA DI EPIFANIA E SETTIMANA MIGRANTE. In questa prima domenica del nuovo anno, celebriamo la manifestazione di Gesù Bambino-il Dio con noi, che si rivela come la luce di tutte le nazioni, con i Magi che sono venuti per adorarlo. Vorrei esprimere la mia sincera gratitudine per tutta la vostra dedizione, partecipazione, impegno e servizio attivo alla Chiesa di Monte Carmelo, durante lo scorso anno e nello stesso tempo esprimere i miei migliori auguri per un fecondo cammino di fede per tutti voi in questo anno 2020. Prego che Gesù Bambino continui a riversare le sue abbondanti benedizioni a tutta la vostra famiglia e a ciascuno di voi. Oggi iniziamo anche la Settimana dei Migranti nella Chiesa degli Stati Uniti. È mio desiderio che questa settimana ci motivi a rispondere alla chiamata dei nostri vescovi. La Settimana Nazionale dei Migranti è dal 5 all'11 gennaio 2020. Il tema della celebrazione di quest'anno è: "Promovendo una chiesa e un mondo per tutti", che riflette la necessità di noi cattolici di essere inclusivi e accoglienti verso tutti i nostri fratelli e sorelle. È un appello all'unità per mostrare solidarietà e cura per gli esclusi e gli emarginati. Dobbiamo accogliere i nuovi arrivati e promuovere una Chiesa per tutti come ci invita Papa Francesco: superare "la globalizzazione dell'indifferenza", evitando ciò che ha portato molti di noi ad ignorare le grida dei poveri o a dare le spalle agli emarginati o rimanendo indifferenti a coloro che lottano per trovare una vita migliore. Siamo chiamati ad essere una Chiesa attiva a sostegno di tutti i figli di Dio, perché "la Chiesa che 'esce' ... può andare avanti, prendere l'iniziativa con coraggio, cercare coloro che si sono allontanati, alzarsi in piedi nei crocevia e dando il benvenuto agli emarginati" (Evangelii Gaudium, 24). Con questo ideale in mente, desideriamo una Chiesa che accoglie, protegge, promuove e integra tutti, compresi migranti e rifugiati. Papa Francesco ha usato questi quattro verbi per sottolineare i nostri obblighi nei confronti delle popolazioni migranti. Come ha espresso nel suo messaggio:Accogliere significa soprattutto "offrire opzioni più ampie ai migranti e ai rifugiati per entrare nei paesi di destinazione in modo sicuro e legale". Dobbiamo coltivare società che mirano a includere, anziché escludere. Una cultura dell'incontro che enfatizza la dignità umana della persona che contrasta con il sentimento anti-immigrante e pone l'accoglienza come un valore del vangelo.Proteggere i migranti "può essere intesa come una serie di passaggi volti a difendere i diritti e la dignità dei migranti, indipendentemente dal loro status giuridico". La Chiesa cattolica ha a lungo sottolineato l'importanza di proteggere la dignità umana dei migranti.Promuovere essenzialmente significa "uno sforzo deciso per garantire che tutti i migranti e rifugiati, così come le comunità che li ospitano, siano formati per raggiungere il loro potenziale di esseri umani, in tutte le dimensioni che costituiscono la loro umanità". Qui è importante il nostro obbligo di istituire pratiche e politiche che promuovano e preservino l'integrità della famiglia, riaffermino il ricongiungimento familiare e consentano ai familiari di lavorare dopo il loro arrivo in nuovi paesi di destinazione. L'integrazione sottolinea le "opportunità di arricchimento interculturale generate dalla presenza di migranti e rifugiati". Sebbene l'atto iniziale di accogliere i migranti sia un passo importante, è indispensabile che procediamo e prendiamo le misure necessarie che li aiutino a diventare membri attivi delle nostre comunità. Prendiamoci del tempo durante la Settimana Nazionale dei Migranti per riflettere su come possiamo accogliere, proteggere, promuovere e integrare meglio i migranti che vivono nel nostro ambiente. Come possiamo contrastare la globalizzazione dell'indifferenza che ci riguarda tutti, in un modo o nell'altro? Quali politiche possiamo promuovere per affermare la dignità dei migranti e garantire meglio il bene comune? Come possiamo lavorare più pienamente per promuovere una Chiesa per tutti? Prego che queste domande ci ispirino a continuare a testimoniare lo spirito del Vangelo. FELICE ANNO NUOVO e molte BENEDIZIONI.
