From the Pastor's Desk

On the Feast of the Epiphany, believers are called to reflect on the mystery of the Nativity of the Lord, as an event that blesses not only the chosen people of Israel, but rather expands itself to the furthest ends of the earth and becomes a cause of joy for all men and women of good will. By His coming into our human history, the infant child made known the Infinite Love of God the Father to the good ones -represented by the shepherds-; to the evil ones, -represented by Herod-; and to the indifferent ones -represented by the scribes and those well learned in the Scriptures -. Today, that manifestation of God's amazing love, becomes public knowledge and reaches the all peoples, represented by the wise men -the number is still uncertain, some say they were three, some say six, and some others insist in twelve as the right number. Still, the importance of the number is not as significant as the fact that in those pilgrims from the east, God's message of salvation becomes public knowledge and from now on, anyone can claim Jesus as Savior.

As a faith family, we are very blessed here at Mount Carmel, for the different faces and languages of our community are a concrete expression of the diversity of the Church. Regardless the color of our skin, the language we learned to express ourselves while growing up or the cultural background we come from, each one of us has been drawn here by the Graceful gift of God's call to Redemption. Our multicultural celebrations as well as our multilingual liturgies express in a very symbolic manner the purpose of God the Father's plan when sending His Only Son into the world: to provoke that all people become One Holy Nation under the inspiration of The Gospel of Christ and the communion of the Holy Spirit. Racial differences are to be seen as a richness rather than a reality to fight. The possibility of creating Unity in Diversity has been possible here in our Parish-Shrine; coming together to celebrate our Faith, in spite the diversity of our origins, is what makes us true witnesses of Christ and his Love -message in a world often divided because of sin and wickedness.

As we gather this day to remember and celebrate the encounter of the wise men with the son of God resting in a manger, let us draw courage from the Lord's desire to be known by all nations and become true and courageous ambassadors of his message: Salvation for all peoples!!!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This year, in the United States the celebration of the Epiphany falls on January 8, but the traditional date for the Epiphany is January 6. The date we know as January 6 was established as the solstice in Egypt in 1996 BC, but the Egyptian calendar lost a full day every 128 years. Twenty centuries later the actual solstice had migrated to December 25. People still kept January 6 for the solstice celebration, but December 25, matching nicely with the Roman pagan feast of the Unconquered Sun, launched an extended solstice holiday. By the time of the early church, the whole period of twelve days was celebrated just about everywhere.

Christians began to celebrate Christ as the true light of the world in four themes: the Nativity, the manifestation to the Gentiles, the baptism of the Lord, and the wedding feast at Cana. That was entirely too much for one day to handle. A twelve-day season was ready to be adapted, so Christians borrowed from the pagan calendar for their own season of light. Thus early Christian celebrations of the Christmas season extended from one date for the solstice, December 25, to the older date, January 6. The darkest time in the Northern Hemisphere could now be filled with the Christian observance of the arrival of the Light of the World.

THE HOLY STAR

O Father, may that holy star
Grow every year more bright
And send its glorious beams afar
To fill the world with light.
- William Cullen Bryant

THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM

The unfolding of the story of the Incarnation continues today as the Church celebrates the Epiphany. The tale of the magi from the East is one of the most fascinating in all of scripture. It has much to teach us about what we can come to expect, even in circumstances and places that may seem insignificant or small. Bethlehem was a tiny town, what we might refer to today as a town without even one stop light. Yet it is over this seemingly insignificant place that the guiding star stops in its own search for the place where the Savior would be born. Too often we fail to recognize the fact that the star of Bethlehem comes to rest in our everyday lives, where we can experience God's presence, manifested in ever new ways. Epiphany calls us to shake off our stupor and recognize the One who comes to save us.

Mensaje del Párroco

Con la fiesta de la Epifanía concluimos la época de Navidad. Después de haber sido manifestado a los buenos y humildes en la persona de los pastores, a los malos y envidiosos en la persona del Rey Herodes y a los indiferentes en la persona de los Escribas y los expertos de la Ley, el Hijo Unigénito de Dios es manifestado a todas las naciones en la persona de los magos. La Fiesta de hoy es una de las más solemnes en el calendario de la Iglesia porque en la visita que estos reyes hicieron al portal, la Salvación que Dios ha querido ofrecer a la humanidad en la persona de Jesús niño, se ofrece a todos los pueblos de la tierra sin distinción alguna. La Humanidad entera puede ahora gozarse al saber que el Regalo del Padre Eterno no se queda recluido para un grupo en particular, sino que la Redención está llamada a tocar hasta los rincones más distantes del mundo.

La Fiesta de la Epifanía (Que significa Manifestación), invita a los creyentes a levantar los ojos -y el corazón- al cielo y a permitir que la luz inunde nuestras vidas y nos fascine como le sucedió a los Reyes. Ya nunca más podemos permitir que las sombras ni las tinieblas conquisten nuestra vida, ahora todo nuestro esfuerzo, debe enfocarse en que la claridad radiante del Recién Nacido inunde nuestra historia y la convierta en una auténtica experiencia de Salvación. La Luz de una estrella sirvió a estos hombres de oriente como guía hacia el portal donde la Sagrada Familia esperaba para mostrarles el Regalo de Dios a todas las naciones... así debe ser también con nuestra vida toda: es necesario que siempre nos dejemos guiar por la luz, no podemos convertirnos en seguidores de tinieblas, en partidarios de las sombras, pues únicamente la claridad y la Luz nos conducen a la Felicidad y la Vida en abundancia tal como Dios la sueña para cada uno.

Al llegar al término de nuestras festividades navideñas, volvamos el corazón agradecido hacia Belén. Dejemos que la ternura del Niño que ha nacido y que hemos celebrado colme nuestra historia con Gracias Celestiales, con Bendiciones mil y con la certeza de que Dios de verdad nos ama. Tanto amo el Padre Celestial al mundo que le dio a su Hijo único, de manera que todo el que crea en él no perezca, sino que tenga la luz de la vida. (Jn.3:16).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Es tiempo de añadir los reyes magos al pesebre. En 1448 llegaron los pesebres italianos a las iglesias españolas, pero no fue hasta que el Rey Carlos III le regaló un pesebre a su hijo en el siglo XVIII que el uso de pesebres se expandió en los hogares. Desde entonces, el uso de nacimientos llegó al continente americano en donde se convirtió en la decoración principal para las fiestas navideñas.

Así como en todo país latinoamericano el montaje del Belén es una tradición, lo es también en Venezuela. Con el pesebre venezolano llegan también aguinaldos, parrandas, Misa y patines. ¡SÍ! ¡Patinas!

Desde la mitad del siglo pasado los venezolanos celebran la época navideña con "patinadas". Estas "patinadas" normalmente se hacen por las mañanas y muchas calles están cerradas a los autos hasta las 8 a.m. para que niños y jóvenes puedan disfrutar de los patines, bicicletas y otros juguetes que les regala el niño Dios. Por esto, muchos niños duermen con un "cordóncito" atado al dedo gordo de los pies, que cuelgan por la ventana para que los despierten los que pasan patinado.

LA ESTRELLA DE BELÉN

El desarrollo del relato de la Encarnación continúa hoy cuando la Iglesia celebra la Epifanía. La historia de los Magos de oriente es uno de los relatos más fascinantes de las Escrituras. Nos enseña mucho sobre qué podemos esperar, incluso en circunstancias y lugares que pueden parecer insignificantes. Belén era un pueblo diminuto, lo que hoy diríamos un pueblo sin siquiera un semáforo. Sin embargo, es sobre este lugar aparentemente insignificante que la estrella guía se detuvo en su búsqueda del lugar en donde el Salvador nacería. Muchas veces no comprendemos que la estrella de Belén se posa en nuestra vida diaria, donde podemos sentir la presencia de Dios, manifestada de maneras diversas y nuevas. La Epifanía nos llama a salir de nuestro estupor y a reconocer a Aquél que viene a salvarnos.

Fr. Feccia's Reflection

Epifania del Signore. L'Epifania, con il suo fascino, è il coronamento gioioso di tutto il tempo natalizio. Una grande luce si sprigiona da questa solennità a diradare le dense tenebre che coprono la terra: una luce che proviene da un bambino che è il Figlio dell'Eterno Padre, il messia degli Israeliti. Il Dio dei pagani e di fronte ad Erode, il re delle genti.

Secondo la meravigliosa pedagogia divina, il messaggio di Natale viene annunciato attraverso segni adatti a ciascuno: ai pastori attraverso una mangiatoia, ai magi attraverso una stella, ai teologi attraverso la scrittura ad Erode stesso attraverso tre saggi venuti dall'oriente. Questi pagani rimangono per noi la figura dell'immensa moltitudine umana, sradicata dal paradiso e che serba di quel lontano ricordo una segreta fame inappagata. Quanti ebbero il presentimento della nascita di questo re dei giudei, sotto una buona stella? Non lo sappiamo. Soltanto i magi si misero in cammino e seguirono la sella fino a Betlemme.

«I cieli narrano la gloria di Dio» (Sl. 18, 2). Affidandosi alla sapienza umana i magi vanno in primo luogo a Gerusalemme, il centro spirituale del popolo ebraico. Perché nel piano di Dio bisogna che la loro scienza arrivi a cedere le redini alla Scrittura rivelata, che indicherà loro dove si trova il bambino La fede nascente e già messa alla prova, può allora intraprendere l'ultima tappa, quella che farà loro riconoscere nel neonato di Betlemme il re di un regno invisibile. Non rimarrà quindi che tornare in patria per un'altra via, con la stella in fondo al cuore, per sempre.

Gli scribi invece, non si muovono: sentinelle addormentate, lasciano che il deposito della Verità vivente diventi come un frutto secco fra le loro mani. Quanto ad Erode, che sente vacillare il suo trono, non fa che provare progetti omicidi. Ma Dio veglia su tutti coloro che camminano sulle tracce di una stella.

La fede del pagani— Un tempo il re pagano di Moab ebbe paura degli ebrei. Riunì gli anziani e fece venire un mago da oltre l'Eufrate. Ma costui, invece di maledire il popolo ebraico, lo benedisse vedendo «una stella spuntare da Giacobbe, un uomo sorgere da Israele» (Nm, 23-24). Matteo stabilisce un ironico parallelo tra Erode e il re di Moab, tra i magi e Balaam, tra il consiglio degli anziani e quello degli scribi. Così, oggi come ieri, spesso sono «gli altri» a riconoscere in Gesù il messia. Oggi, come ieri, Cristo è una provocazione per il suo popolo e una speranza per i lontani. L'aveva intravisto Isaia (60, 5ss), vedendo i pagani affluire nella città santa e ricostruirne le mura.

Il battesimo di Cristo è il «nostro battesimo»

La redazione degli evangelisti tende a presentare il battesimo di Gesù come il battesimo del «nuovo popolo di Dio», il battesimo della Chiesa. Nel libro dell'Esodo, Israele è il figlio primogenito che viene liberato dall'Egitto per servire a Dio e offrirgli il sacrificio (Es 4,22); è il popolo che passa tra la muraglia d'acqua del Mar Rosso e nel sentiero asciutto attraverso il fiume Giordano. Cristo è il «figlio diletto» che offre l'unico sacrificio accetto al Padre; Cristo che «esce dall'acqua» è il nuovo popolo che viene definitivamente liberato: lo Spirito non solo scende su Cristo, ma rimane su di lui «perché gli uomini riconoscessero in lui il Messia, inviato a portare ai poveri il lieto annuncio» (prefazio).

Lo Spirito che non aveva più dimora permanente fra gli uomini (Gn 6,3) ora rimane sempre, per Cristo, nella Chiesa.

La missione di Cristo è prefigurata in quella del Servo sofferente di Isaia. Il «Servo di Iahvè» è colui che porta su di sé i peccati del popolo. In Cristo che si sottopone ad un atto pubblico di penitenza, vediamo la solidarietà del Padre, del Figlio e dello Spirito Santo con la nostra storia. Gesù non prende le distanze da un'umanità peccatrice: al contrario, vi si immedesima per meglio «manifestare il mistero del nuovo lavacro» (pref.) e i conseguenti impegni di azione apostolica che ne derivano per il discepolo.

The Epiphany of the Lord

LIGHT OF THE WORLD

We believe that Jesus is the Light of the World. To say this about Jesus is to say something about ourselves. Christ's light is meant to illuminate every corner of the earth and gather all people together. Today's scriptures reveal what that means.

In the Gospel story of the magi from the East we see Jesus, even as an infant, gathering people of different religions and races to his light. The magi bring the child their finest gifts and tell others of the light that they have seen. The reading from Ephesians reminds us that all Christians are "members of the same body, and copartners" in divine life. There ought not to be divisions among us: all should gather together under the light of Christ. Finally, Isaiah paints a picture of what the people of God, the church, should look like. We are to reflect the Light of the World so that all nations can walk by Christ's light and rulers by his shining radiance. When we do, all people will be gathered to Christ, bearing their finest gifts and "proclaiming the praises of the LORD."

GOLD, FRANKINCENSE, AND MYRRH

The gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh portend the manner in which Jesus' light is to spread to the whole world. Myrrh, a perfume used for burial, foreshadows his death. Gold is a gift for royalty, and frankincense signifies holiness. Together they indicate that, through his suffering and death, Jesus will become both the afflicted King, in whose service we are to offer our gifts to the afflicted, and the eternal Priest, whose sacrifice we are to make known as the source of light uniting Christians and all humanity.

By our unity, our lives, and our witness, we are to reveal that Jesus Christ is indeed the Light of the World.
