IV SUNDAY OF EASTER - SUNDAY OF THE GOOD PASTOR & 56 WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS. This Sunday of the Good Shepherd, we reflect and pray with Pope Francis in reflecting on our vocation and life project. With the theme: the courage to take a risk for God's promise, Pope Francis reminds us how Lord's call makes us bearers of a promise and, at the same time, asks us the courage to take risks with him and for him. I will do this by reflecting briefly with you on these two aspects - the promise and the risk-as they appear in the Gospel account of the calling of the first disciples by the sea of Galilee (Mk 1:16-20). Two pairs of brothers – Simon and Andrew, and James and John-are going about their daily tasks as fishermen. In this demanding work, they had learned the laws of nature, yet at times, when the winds were adverse and waves shook their boats, they had to defy the elements. On some days, the catch of fish amply repaid their efforts, but on others, an entire night's work was not sufficient to fill their nets, and they had to return to shore weary and disappointed. Much of life is like that. Each of us tries to realize his or her deepest desires; we engage in activities that we hope will prove enriching, and we put out on a "sea" of possibilities in the hope of steering the right course, one that will satisfy our thirst for happiness. Sometimes we enjoy a good catch, while at others, we need courage to keep our boat from being tossed by the waves, or we are frustrated at seeing our nets come up empty. As with every call, the Gospel speaks of an encounter. Jesus walks by, sees those fishermen, and walks up to them... That day, by the sea of Galilee, Jesus drew near to those fishermen, and tell them: "I will make you fishers of men" (Mk 1:17). The Lord's call is not an intrusion of God in our freedom; it is not a "cage" or a burden to be borne. On the contrary, it is the loving initiative whereby God encounters us and invites us to be part of a great undertaking. He opens before our eyes the horizon of a greater sea and an abundant catch. Vocation is a summons not to stand on the shore, nets in hand, but to follow Jesus on the path he has marked out for us, for our own happiness and for the good of those around us. As, the first disciples, called by Jesus to be part of something greater, "immediately left their nets and followed him" (Mk 1:18). Responding to the Lord's call involves putting ourselves on the line and facing a great challenge. It means being ready to leave behind whatever would keep us tied to our little boat and prevent us from making a definitive choice. We are called to be bold and decisive in seeking God's plan for our lives. Gazing out at the vast "ocean" of vocation, we cannot remain content to repair our nets on the boat that gives us security, but must trust instead in the Lord's promise. Dear friends, it is not always easy to discern our vocation and to steer our life in the right direction. For this reason, there needs to be a renewed commitment on the part of the whole Church – priests, religious, pastoral workers and educators – to provide young people in particular with opportunities for listening and discernment. There is a need for a youth ministry and a vocational promotion that can open the way to discovering God's plan, above all through prayer, meditation on God's word, eucharistic adoration and spiritual accompaniment.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

Mother's Day is the perfect occasion to thank the Lord for the gift of womanhood, and the Grace of Life! The perfect moment to approach those who gave us life, and express our endless gratitude. The special moment to let them know how much we appreciate all their concerns, and quiet sacrifices on our behalf. The right time to show a bit of gratitude and love in return for the gift of their presence in our lives. Indeed, Mother's Day provides us with the opportunity to get the best out of ourselves and discover -many times to our very own surprise- that it does not matter how old we may be… a mother will always make us feel unpretentious and fond like a little child.

IV DOMINGO DE PASCUA - DOMINGO DEL BUEN PASTOR & 56 JORNADA MUNDIAL DE ORACIÓN POR LAS VOCACIONES. En este domingo del Buen Pastor, reflexionamos y rezamos con Papa Francisco en el realizar nuestra vocación y proyecto de vida. Con el tema: la valentía de arriesgar por la promesa de Dios, Papa Francisco nos recuerda cómo la llamada del Señor nos hace portadores de una promesa y, al mismo tiempo, nos pide la valentía de arriesgarnos con él y por él. Me gustaría considerar brevemente estos dos aspectos, la promesa y el riesgo, contemplando con ustedes la escena evangélica de la llamada de los primeros discípulos en el lago de Galilea (Mc 1,16-20). Dos parejas de hermanos, Simón y Andrés junto a Santiago y Juan, están haciendo su trabajo diario como pescadores. En este trabajo arduo aprendieron las leyes de la naturaleza y, a veces, tuvieron que desafiarlas cuando los vientos eran contrarios y las olas sacudían las barcas. En ciertos días, la pesca abundante recompensaba el duro esfuerzo, pero otras veces, el trabajo de toda una noche no era suficiente para llenar las redes y regresaban a la orilla cansados y decepcionados. Estas son las situaciones ordinarias de la vida, continua Papa Francisco, en las que cada uno de nosotros ha de confrontarse con los deseos que lleva en su corazón, se esfuerza en actividades que confía en que sean fructíferas, avanza en el "mar" de muchas posibilidades en busca de la ruta adecuada que pueda satisfacer su sed de felicidad. A veces se obtiene una buena pesca, otras veces, en cambio, hay que armarse de valor para pilotar una barca golpeada por las olas, o hay que lidiar con la frustración de verse con las redes vacías. Como en la historia de toda llamada, también en este caso se produce un encuentro. Jesús camina, ve a esos pescadores y se acerca... Así, aquel día, junto al lago de Galilea, Jesús fue al encuentro de aquellos pescadores, diciendoles: los haré pescadores de hombres» (Mc 1,17). La llamada del Señor, por tanto, no es una intromisión de Dios en nuestra libertad; no es una "jaula" o un peso que se nos carga encima. Por el contrario, es la iniciativa amorosa con la que Dios viene a nuestro encuentro y nos invita a entrar en un gran proyecto, del que quiere que participemos, mostrándonos en el horizonte un mar más amplio y una pesca sobreabundante. La vocación es una invitación a no quedarnos en la orilla con las redes en la mano, sino a seguir a Jesús por el camino que ha pensado para nosotros, para nuestra felicidad y para el bien de los que nos rodean, sea como soltero, Casado, religioso, sacerdote o misionero laico o consagrado. Como los primeros discípulos, sintiéndose llamados por él a participar en un sueño más grande, «inmediatamente dejaron sus redes y lo siguieron» (Mc 1,18). Esto significa que para seguir la llamada del Señor debemos implicarnos con todo nuestro ser y correr el riesgo de enfrentarnos a un desafío desconocido; debemos dejar todo lo que nos puede mantener amarrados a nuestra pequeña barca, impidiéndonos tomar una decisión definitiva; se nos pide esa audacia que nos impulse con fuerza a descubrir el proyecto que Dios tiene para nuestra vida. Por este motivo, es necesario un compromiso renovado por parte de toda la Iglesia, para que se les ofrezcan, especialmente a los jóvenes, posibilidades de escucha y de discernimiento, a traves de una pastoral juvenil y vocacional que ayude al descubrimiento del plan de Dios, especialmente con la oración, la meditación de la Palabra de Dios, la adoración eucarística y el acompañamiento espiritual.

BIENVENIDO AL PADRE RIGOBERTO OLIVARES

P. Rigoberto nació en la Ciudad de México. Es el mayor de cuatro hermanos y se mudó a California cuando era muy joven. Su camino hacia el sacerdocio comenzó cuando se unió al grupo de oración de los viernes en su parroquia. Más tarde fundó el grupo de jóvenes adultos de habla hispana: "Soldados de Cristo", que todavía existe hasta nuestros días. Rigoberto se conoció a los Padres Scalabrinianos durante un retiro para jóvenes y luego se unió a su programa de formación. Primero entró en la Casa de Discernimiento en Sun Valley, California. Su primera experiencia misionera fue con los jornaleros en Los Ángeles. Posteriormente, continuó sus estudios de Filosofía en la Universidad UIC, en la Ciudad de México. También sirvió durante seis meses en la Casa del Migrante en Tijuana México. Completó el año de noviciado en Guadalajara, México, y realizó sus primeros votos religiosos el 28 de noviembre de 2018. Luego, fue enviado a estudiar teología en Sao Paulo, Brasil, donde vivió durante cinco años, estudiando y sirviendo a inmigrantes de Filipinas, Siria. Haití, África, Perú y Bolivia. El padre Rigoberto fue ordenado el 16 de febrero de 2019, y fue asignado para su primera misión a nuestra parroquia de Nuestra Señora del Monte Carmelo, en Melrose Park.

FELIZ DIA DE LAS MADRES

Al celebrar el día de las madres, los creyentes nos regocijamos por el regalo de la existencia que Dios ha descansado en nosotros a través de la mujer. Esta fiesta nos brinda la posibilidad de reconocer el Don de la Vida como el más sagrado y precioso de todos los regalos que el Creador pudo habernos otorgado y el saber que ha querido concederlo a través de un ser gentil, cercano, amoroso, que siempre se preocupa por nosotros, siempre esperara en nosotros sin importar cuantas veces fallemos, siempre está dispuesta a perdonarnos… al considerar todo esto, no nos queda más que agradecidos elevar este día una plegaria de acción de gracias por el regalo de nuestras madrecitas

Fr. Feccia's Reflection

Quarta domenica di Pasqua —Tutto quello che si può dire del cristianesimo come esperienza di comunione e di salvezza, si trova sintetizzato nei versetti che concludono il discorso di Gesù sul vero pastore. Dopo un primo sviluppo in cui si è presentato come la porta delle pecore e il loro pastore, Gesù ha interrotto il suo discorso. Ma i suoi avversari non si accontentano di un'allegoria, e insistono per una dichiarazione esplicita. «Sei tu il Cristo, dillo a noi apertamente!» (Gv. 10, 24). Per tutta risposta, Gesù si limita a descrivere l'atteggiamento che le sue pecore devono avere nei suoi confronti: è lo stesso che i suoi credenti di ogni tempo devono assumere nei confronti dell'inviato di Dio.

La fonte della loro comunione con lui? «Io e il Padre siamo una cosa sola». Gesù non è soltanto il vero, il buon pastore: lo è alla maniera di Dio, nel modo in cui Jahvé, nell' Antico Testamento guidava e salvava il suo popolo. L'unione del Padre e del Figlio è la fonte della reciproca appartenenza del Cristo e dei cristiani — il mezzo per attingere a questa fonte? «Le mie pecore ascoltano la mia voce… e mi seguono». Il Padre ha affidato le sue pecore a Gesù, e questi dona loro la vita eterna, con una certezza che si intuisce soltanto contem-plando la croce. «Non andranno mai perdute e nessuno le rapirà dalla mia mano». Gesù è allo stesso tempo il pastore e l'agnello immolato, ha pagato la nostra salvezza con la sua vita. Il fondamento di questa comunione? «Io le conosco». Tra Gesù e i suoi si crea un rapporto di intimità da cui scatu-risce un modo nuovo di vivere. Noi dobbiamo vivere in Lui come la luce dipende dal sole, come il soffio deriva dal vento.

Tutto questo non avviene senza fatica: il camino della pasqua conosce sofferenze che ricordano i dolori del parto, dolori che preludono e fanno sbocciare una vita nuova.

Preghiere come provocazione — Queste parole di Gesù rispondono alle domande delle autorità religiose, che gli hanno chiesto, come farà il sommo sacerdote durante il processo: «Sei tu il Cristo, dillo apertamente». Nel vangelo di Luca Gesù risponde: «Anche se ve lo dico non mi crederete». Che cosa attendono da Gesù i giudei? Che egli si inserisca in un quadro prestabilito, in una mentalità preordinata. Si attende un messia dalle caratteristiche ben precise, secondo i nostri gusti. I Farisei parlando con Dio, formulano sia la domanda che la risposta: non sono liberi. Per entrare nella fede, invece, è necessario essere disponibili al piano di Dio. E noi, non ci avviciniamo forse tante volte a Dio nell'atteg-giamento della provocazione e della presunzione?

BUONA FESTA DELLA MAMMA

La festa della mamma è l'occasione perfetta per ringraziare il Signore per il dono della donna e la grazia della vita! Il momento perfetto per avvicinarsi a chi ci ha donato la vita ed esprimere la nostra infinita gratitudine. Il momento speciale per far loro sapere quanto apprezziamo tutte le loro preoccupazioni e silenziosi sacrifici per nostro conto. Il momento giusto per mostrare un po 'di gratitudine e amore in cambio del dono della loro presenza nelle nostre vite. In effetti, la festa della mamma ci offre l'opportunità di trarre il meglio da noi stessi e scoprire - molte volte con nostra stessa sorpresa - che non importa quanti anni abbiamo ... una madre ci farà sempre sentire senza pretese e affettuosi come un piccolo bambino.
