CORPUS CHRISTI. We celebrate the Solemnity of one of the great mysteries of our faith. The mystery of the Eucharist helps us to relive the last supper that Jesus celebrated with his disciples on the eve of his passion. How did Jesus design that supper? What did he want to leave engraved forever in his disciples? What and why should they keep commemorating that unforgettable celebration? There are four Eucharist words that I think help us to enter into the Eucharist experience as chosen people: "He took bread, blessed it, broke it and gave it to them". We will also repeat today in the Sequence of Corpus Christi: «This is the bread of the angels, bread of the pilgrims. Lead your brothers to the heavenly banquet in the joy of the saints». God is not an abstract idea, a vague and timeless philosophy. Jesus is never a ghost: He is a body, a solid, physical body that is present today, as a pilgrim who walks by our side and remains with us when evening comes. The body is present in the Eucharist and this is why the Church contemplates and adores the Consecrated Host. In the Host is Jesus' body transfigured, crucified and risen. His body accompanies us in the different seasons of our life. For instance, we could recall the emotion of when, we received Him for the first time. Every time, we nourish ourselves with Him, we should feel as we did the first time. This Bread never becomes a right: we cannot buy it, it has no price, as for people who calculate. It is a Body that teaches us to love freely: it is the Body of the love of God. The altar of the Eucharist makes present the Passover supper, when Jesus took the bread, blessed it, broke it and gave it to his people saying: «This is my body», and then he took the chalice saying: «This is my blood". This Body invites us to live what we have celebrated in the Church. The Mass always ends commissioning us: "go and witness what we have celebrated here". That is, to make present to others the body of Christ, that of the poor, the weak and the sick. "Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me", Jesus said. Christ's body is the body of the needy, sick and poor migrants: women full of dreams and fears, lost children, men desperately seeking a better future... They are bodies whose stories, faces, names, have been lost and forgotten... ??? But, God knows their names. He knows them all. He gives them warmth, welcomes them, protects, understands and listens to them; He caresses them, taking time to be with them. Their body is His body. Pope Francis reminds us: "Blessed are those who love the body of Christ in the suffering body of the poor. Let us love Jesus' body in the Eucharist. Let us love the Lord's body in the body of the poor. The weakness of others is that of God. Let us visit those who are alone; let us honor Corpus Christi by stopping in front of those who need a hand and let us make them beautiful with love. Venerating His body, broken and poured out on the altar, will make us love the weakness of Christ's body in others, on those we encounter and surround us ". Amen!

Mensaje del Párroco

CORPUS CHRISTI. Celebramos hoy la Solemnidad de uno de los grandes misterios de nuestra fe. Este misterio eucarístico nos ayuda a revivir la última cena que Jesús celebró con sus discípulos la víspera de su pasión. ¿Cómo diseñó Jesús aquella cena? ¿Qué es lo que quería dejar grabado para siempre en sus discípulos? ¿Por qué y para qué debían seguir reviviendo una y otra vez aquella despedida inolvidable? Hay cuatro palabras eucarísticas que creo nos ayudan a entrar en la vivencia eucarística como elegidos: "Tomó el pan, lo bendijo, lo partió y se lo dio". Repetiremos también hoy en la Secuencia de Corpus Christi: «Este es el pan de los ángeles, pan de los peregrinos. Conviértenos en tus comensales del cielo, junto con los santos». Dios no es una idea abstracta, una filosofía vaga y atemporal, inalcanzable, lejana. Jesús nunca es un fantasma: es un cuerpo, concreto, que se presenta en el hoy, peregrino que se une a nuestros pasos y se queda con nosotros cuando anochece. Aquel cuerpo está presente en la Eucaristía. Por eso la Iglesia se detiene a contemplar y adorar la Hostia consagrada. En aquella Hostia está el cuerpo de Jesús transfigurado, crucificado y resucitado. Su cuerpo nos acompaña en las distintas etapas de nuestra vida, desde que, con emoción, lo recibimos por primera vez. Sabemos, cada vez que nos alimentamos de Él debe ser como la primera vez: siempre debe asombrarnos un amor tan grande que viene a habitar en nosotros. Este Pan nunca es un derecho: no se compra, no tiene precio, para nosotros, que somos calculadores. Es un Cuerpo que nos enseña a amar gratuitamente: es el Cuerpo de amor de Dios. El altar de la Eucaristía hace presente aquella cena de la Pascua, cuando Jesús tomó el pan, lo bendijo, lo partió y lo dio a los suyos diciendo: «Este es mi cuerpo», y luego tomó el cáliz diciendo: «Esta es mi sangre». Este Cuerpo nos remite a vivir lo que hemos celebrado en el templo. Por cierto la Misa termina comisionándonos: "vayan a testimoniar lo que aquí hemos vivido". Es decir hacer presente el otro cuerpo de Cristo, el de los pobres, los débiles y los enfermos. «Cuanto hicieron a uno de estos hermanos míos más pequeños, a mí me lo hicieron», dijo Jesús. El cuerpo de Cristo es cuerpo de pobres necesitados, enfermos y migrantes: mujeres llenas de sueños y de miedos, niños perdidos, hombres que buscan desesperadamente un futuro… Son cuerpos cuya historia, cuyo rostro, cuyo nombre, se han perdido…??? Pero, Dios conoce sus nombres, Él los conoce todos. Él les da calor, les acoge, les protege, les entiende, les escucha, les acaricia, Él pierde tiempo con ellos. Aquellos cuerpos son el suyo. Papa Francisco nos recuerda: "dichoso aquel que ama el cuerpo de Cristo sufriente en los pobres. Amemos el cuerpo de Jesús en su Eucaristía. Amemos el cuerpo del Señor en el cuerpo de los pobres y de los hermanos. La debilidad del otro es la debilidad de Dios. Vayamos a visitar a quien está solo, honremos el Corpus Christi parándonos frente a quien pide y hagámoslo hermoso con el amor. Venerar el cuerpo partido y derramado en el altar nos hará amar la debilidad del cuerpo de Cristo en sus hermanos, nuestros hermanos que encontramos y nos rodean". Amen!

Fr. Feccia's Reflection

Ss. Corpo e sangue di Cristo — Anno "B". L'eucarestia è un sacramento il cui significato sta al di là di quello che scorgono i nostri occhi. Per raggiungere la profondità del suo mistero, bisogna partire da ciò che si vede, per arrivare a ciò che si crede ed entrare in comunione con ciò che è.

Ciò che si vede: il pane e il vino, realtà umane che il Cristo prende e dà agli uomini da mangiare e da bere. E ancora realtà bibliche: il pane dell'esodo mangiato in fretta, il vino che evoca il banchetto del regno: senza il duplice movimento del dare e del ricevere non ci sarebbe alleanza tra Cristo e noi.

Ciò che si crede: il sacrificio che Gesù ha prefigurato nella cena. Sotto il segno del pane e del vino eucaristici, Gesù, Parola efficace di Dio, dona la propria vita agli uomini, perché dalla sua pasqua essi ricevano ogni grazia e ogni bene. Anche quando dividono tra di loro il pane di ogni giorno i cristiani dovrebbero intuire la presenza del Cristo che si dona, presenza che sull'altare si fa sacramento del suo corpo e del suo sangue. Ciò che è: Bisogna fare l'esperienza della vita col Cristo per cogliere ciò che è veramente l'eucarestia: un «supplemento di essere» che ci viene dal risorto. Chiamati all'amore universale, noi facciamo corpo col Cristo vivente e presente negli uomini, sperimentando l'unità dei due comandamenti e il legame tra la fede e la vita.

«Lo strinsi fortemente e non lo lascerò» (Ct 3,4). Dalla prima comunione fino all'ultima, questo desiderio deve accompagnare il nostro cammino di pellegrini, legati al passato, ma tesi verso il futuro della comunione con Dio.

La nuova alleanza — L'istituzione dell'eucarestia nel vangelo di Marco è talmente legata alla morte di Gesù, da esserne oltre che un'anticipazione sacramentale, come negli altri vangeli, ma anche una profezia diretta. Nell'ultima cena Gesù sta veramente per attuare quello che annuncia coi gesti e con le parole. Il calice e il pane spezzato che presenta ai discepoli —immagine comune della pasqua ebraica— per attuare quello che annuncia della nuova alleanza che sarà suggerita dal sacrificio di un «agnello» senza macchia, il cui sangue riscatterà «la moltitudine».
