From the Pastor's Desk

Sunday XI of Ordinary Time and Feast of the Father's.

Following Pentecost, we had 4 very important Solemnities of our faith and Catholic tradition: SS. Trinity, Corpus Christi, Sacred Heart and last Sunday, the Anniversary of the Dedication and Consecration of our House of Prayer, Mount Carmel Church. It was a moment of grace that helped us to strengthen our bonds of faith and fraternity as people of God. Many thanks to those who were part of the celebrations and especially the members of the Committee of the Jubilees (50th and 125th).

On this Father's Day the Church invites us to reflect on the teaching of Jesus and the Kingdom of God. Reading the Gospels, we see immediately that the theme of the "Kingdom of God" is fundamental in the preaching of Jesus. Jesus uses all the languages, including the one of the parables, so that the listener understands the arrival of the Kingdom and its action in our life. The parables with the use of images and examples of daily life enable us to participate more effectively in our daily reality.

Jesus wanted his followers to understand the essentials of his preaching and his mission. That's why He is concerned for their future. He wonders: Will they forget the Kingdom of God or keep their trust in the Father? The most important thing is that they should never forget their mission and how they have to carry it out. So, from the experience of the farmers of Galilee, Jesus with some parables encourages them to always work with realism, with patience and with great confidence. The first thing they need to know is that their task is to sow, not harvest. They will not live pending results. They do not have to worry about efficacy or immediate success. His focus will be on sowing the Gospel well. The disciples of Jesus must be sowers. Nothing else. Christians must regain in the Church the humble gesture of the sower. Forget the logic of the harvester, who always comes to reap fruit, and enter the patient logic of sowing a better future. This gospel points out that we have to sow small seeds. Jesus does not talk about big things.

The Kingdom of God is something very humble and modest in its origins. Something that can happen as unnoticed as the smallest seed, but that is called to grow and bear fruit unexpectedly. Maybe we need to learn again to appreciate small things and small gestures. We are called to live putting a little dignity in every corner of our little world. It can be enough: a friendly gesture to those who live in bewilderment, a welcoming smile to those who are alone or migrant, a sign of closeness to those who find themselves to despair, bring a ray of little joy in a burdened heart ... they are not big things, but they transform hearts. According to Jesus, it is like planting something as small and insignificant as "a grain of mustard seed" that germinates secretly in the hearts of people. What we need is to look for new ways with the humility and trust of Jesus. They are small seeds of the Kingdom of God that we can all sow around us to transform a complicated and sad society, that has often forgotten the charm of small, simple, good things and elevate them to an experience of love, fraternity and hope.

Mensaje del Párroco

Domingo XI del Tiempo Ordinario y Fiesta de los Papás.

En seguida de Pentecostés tuvimos 4 Solemnidades muy importantes de nuestra fe y tradición católica: SS. Trinidad, Corpus Christi, Sagrado Corazón y el domingo pasado, el Aniversario de la Dedicación y Consagración de nuestra Casa de Oración, Iglesia de Monte Carmelo. Fue un momento de gracia que nos ayudó a reforzar nuestros vínculos de fe y fraternidad como pueblo de Dios. Muchas gracias a los que fueron parte de las celebraciones y sobre todo los miembros del Comité de los Jubileos (50esimo y 125esimo).

En este día del Papá la Iglesia nos invita a reflexionar sobre la enseñanza de Jesús y el Reino de Dios. Leyendo los evangelios, vemos inmediatamente que el tema del «Reino de Dios» es fundamental en la predicación de Jesús. Jesús utiliza todos los lenguajes, incluido el de las parábolas, para que quien le escucha comprenda la llegada del Reino y su acción en nuestra vida. Las parábolas con el uso de imágenes y de ejemplos de la vida de cada día, quiere lograr que los oyentes participen con mayor eficacia en la realidad que presentan.

Jesús quería que sus seguidores comprendieran el esencial de su anuncio y de su misión. Por eso la inquietud del maestro es de animarlo en eso. Preguntándose: ¿Olvidarán el Reino de Dios y mantendrían su confianza en el Padre? Lo más importante es que no olviden nunca su misión y cómo han de trabajarla. Así que, desde la experiencia de los campesinos de Galilea, Jesús con algunas parábolas los anima a trabajar siempre con realismo, con paciencia y con una confianza grande. Lo primero que han de saber es que su tarea es sembrar, no cosechar. No vivirán pendientes de los resultados. No les han de preocupar la eficacia ni el éxito inmediato. Su atención se centrará en sembrar bien el Evangelio. Los discípulos de Jesús han de ser sembradores. Nada más. Los cristianos hemos de recuperar en la Iglesia el gesto humilde del sembrador. Olvidar la lógica del cosechador, que sale siempre a recoger frutos, y entrar en la lógica paciente del que siembra un futuro mejor. Este evangelio puntualiza que tenemos que sembrar pequeñas semillas. Jesús no habla de cosas grandes.

El Reino de Dios es algo muy humilde y modesto en sus orígenes. Algo que puede pasar tan desapercibido como la semilla más pequeña, pero que está llamado a crecer y fructificar de manera inesperada. Quizás necesitamos aprender de nuevo a valorar las pequeñas cosas y los pequeños gestos. Somos llamados a vivir poniendo un poco de dignidad en cada rincón de nuestro pequeño mundo. Puede ser suficiente, un gesto amistoso al que vive desconcertado, una sonrisa acogedora a quien está solo o migrante, una señal de cercanía a quien comienza a desesperar, ofrecer un rayo de pequeña alegría en un corazón agobiado... no son cosas grandes, pero transforman corazones. Según Jesús, es como sembrar algo tan pequeño e insignificante como "un grano de mostaza" que germina secretamente en el corazón de las personas. Lo que necesitamos es buscar caminos nuevos con la humildad y la confianza de Jesús. Son pequeñas semillas del Reino de Dios que todos podemos sembrar a nuestro alrededor para trasformar una sociedad complicada y triste, que ha olvidado el encanto de las cosas pequeñas, sencillas, buenas y elevarlas a una vivencia de amor, fraternidad y esperanza.

Fr. Feccia's Reflection

Undicesima Domenica del T.O. — Anno "B". La leggenda di san Frontone, apostolo della regione francese del Perigord, racconta che l'imperatore, dopo averlo mandato in esilio, fu preso da scrupoli e gli inviò nell'eremo, dove era stato esiliato, settanta cammelli carichi di provviste. Un bambino del catechismo a cui era stato narrato questa storia, chiese come mai non ci fossero più cammelli in quella regione «Perché non li meritiamo più…» gli rispose sospirando il sacerdote. Questa risposta tradisce la frustrazione di chi non ha ancora saputo rinunciare al trionfalismo della chiesa di ieri. Preoccupati per la rapida diminuzione del numero dei credenti per il secolarismo crescente di una società che si adatta senza fatica al silenzio di Dio, questi cristiani rifiutano il mondo contemporaneo che, col suo disprezzo del passato e dei fasi ecclesiastici, ha cessato di meritare le glorie e i miracoli dei secoli della cristianità. Per questo non ci sono più cammelli nel Perigord…

Nella parabola del seme che germoglia da solo e del granellino di senapa, costoro potrebbero trovare una risposta alla loro preoccupazione e al loro scandalo. Nonostante la sua apparente passività, Dio è all'opera nel mondo: il suo regno di salvezza conoscerà un'espansione prodigiosa, del tutto sproporzionata, alla modestia degli inizi. Ma la condizione di questa crescita è la morte di Gesù, chicco di frumento gettato nella terra per portare molto frutto: la chiesa non deve mai dimenticarlo.

Non dobbiamo dunque perderci d'animo, ma dobbiamo piuttosto essere capaci di comprendere i cambiamenti che si impongono all'esistenza cristiana. Nella «condizione di diaspora» che ormai le è propria, la chiesa deve operare un ritorno alle origini: al vangelo che i primi cristiani hanno vissuto senza il sostegno di una potente organizzazione, ma con i mezzi poveri della conversione e della testimonianza, gli unici capaci riguadagnare a Cristo il cuore degli uomini.

Il regno di Dio —Ci accorgiamo spesso che il regno di Dio progredisce proprio là dove non abbiamo nemmeno annunciato; spesso accade tra coloro a cui non prestiamo attenzione e perfino dove poniamo degli ostacoli al regno. La parola di Dio è essa stessa all'opera, potente e creatrice. Dio ci affida questa parola come un piccolo seme: se lo lasciamo maturare, è capace di trasformare il mondo. Non è la povertà che conduce la chiesa alla sconfitta, ma se mai i suoi cedimenti alla tentazione di essere potente.
