Who are the Priests serving at Mount Carmel?

MISSIONARIES OF ST. CHARLES - Scalabrinians

The Congregation of the Missionaries of St. Charles – Scalabrinians – is an International community of religious serving migrants and refugees of different cultures, religions and ethnicities in 32 countries and on five continents.

The Congregation was founded on November 28, 1887, by Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini (1839-1905), bishop of Piacenza (Italy). It was the period of massive emigration from Italy and Europe toward the Americas. It was a far-reaching phenomenon whose importance Bishop Scalabrini was able to grasp in both its social and religious dimensions.

Our missionary focus has been to be migrants with the migrants and to be in mission with people on the move along with a special priority for the poorest migrants. What has become very obvious is that as we have taken more missionary risks and made an effort to clarify our Charism we have been blessed with more and more vocations.

Renew My Church! Inspired in the words of Christ to St. Francis of Assisi, this is a project Archbishop Cupich has lounged in the Archdiocese of Chicago in order to revitalize the Missionary activity in this local Church. For months, plans have been presented to all the priests working in the Archdiocese and lately the idea is to make known the project to all Catholics, in the hope that every baptized would get involved in one way or another. After hours and hours of dialogue and discussion, after several meetings for priests and staff working in our parishes, after much prayer and discernment, all the parishes in the Archdiocese have been gathered in groupings in the hope that the project would better be analyzed and implemented.

Because of geographical reasons, Our Lady of Mount Carmel has been proposed to group with Sacred Heart, St. Charles B., St. Domitila, St. Eulalia and St. Simeon. -This is a proposal though and final decision will be made at a later date-. As Bishop Manz stated in his letter announcing our grouping, "The ultimate purpose of the groupings is to better position ourselves to carry out the Archbishops vision for Renew My Church: An archdiocese made up of Parishes that have the resources and capacity to be vital and vibrant for a truly life-giving, disciple-making, and sustainable Catholic presence for years to come. Each group will be charged with planning for the best way to achieve that vision in their local areas. In some areas, this may require new configurations such as multi-site parishes or multi parish pastoring". In other words, we are now call to work together to better discern how we can best serve the Catholic population of our area. Archbishop Cupich has invited all pastors to work closely with our parishioners in providing the best input possible in order to benefit the Mission of the Church which is that of making the Gospel of Jesus Christ known to all peoples while bringing all peoples to friendship with God.

We must journey through this project with joyful and expectant hearts. Fear cannot be part of the discernment process for we know, the Lord is with us, directing our efforts and focusing our energies in the Service of God's Kingdom. If we do so, no doubt the result will be the fulfillment of God's will for our Faith Community. Let us then journey with confidence and praying for the success of this new adventure… as it has always happened, the Lord is our faithful companion on the journey.

Pilgrimage in the Holy Year of Mercy

Will take place on Saturday, October 15 at the Church of St. John Vianney, in Northlake.

Fr. August and all those who want to join him on foot, will depart from Casa Italia at 9:00am. Others will go directly to the Church on Wolf Rd. and North ave. When we are all ready, at 10:00am, we will enter through the HOLY DOOR, to receive the plenary indulgence, and after we will take part in the Eucharist. We will join again at the Italian Cultural Center for light refreshments, before we return to our families.

Pilgrimage'- according to the words of Pope Francis– is intended as a symbol of the journey through life toward the Lord Forever.

Mensaje del Párroco

¡Renueva mi Iglesia! Inspirado en las palabras de Cristo a San Francisco de Asís, este es un proyecto que, desde hace algunos meses, la Arquidiócesis está promoviendo. El propósito de todo este esfuerzo, es revitalizar la actividad misionera en esta Iglesia Local de Chicago, mientras se busca la manera de aprovechar al máximo los recursos financieros, humanos y espirituales con los que contamos. Después de muchas horas de dialogo y discusión, varios encuentros con los párrocos y algunos eventos que incluían el personal que trabaja en nuestras comunidades de Fe, todas las parroquias de la Arquidiócesis se han reunidos en pequeños grupos de reflexión y trabajo con los que se piensa sacar adelante el proyecto.

Por cuestiones geográficas, nuestra parroquia del Monte Carmelo, ha quedado en el mismo grupo que Sagrado Corazón, S. Carlos B. S. Domitila, S. Eulalia y S. Simeón. -Esta es la propuesta, pero el grupo final se anunciará luego-. Como Mons. Manz lo ha dicho al enviarnos su carta con la propuesta de grupos: "El propósito de los grupos, es acomodarnos de la mejor manera posible para que podamos llevar a cabo la visión del Arzobispo en el proyecto Renueva mi Iglesia. Una Arquidiócesis constituida por parroquias que tienen recursos y la capacidad suficiente para considerarse una comunidad vital y vibrante, para una presencia católica que sea generadora de vida, creadora de discípulos y sustentable en los años venideros. Cada grupo tendrá la responsabilidad de planear de la mejor manera posible como lograr esa visión en sus áreas locales. Para algunas áreas, esto puede ser que requiera una reconfiguración que implique una parroquia con varios sitios de culto o proyectos multi-pastorales que envuelva a las diversas comunidades". En otras palabras, somos llamados a trabajar en unidad de manera que podamos discernir con claridad la mejor manera de servir y atender a la población católica de nuestra área. El Arzobispo Cupich ha invitado a los párrocos a trabajar conjuntamente con sus parroquianos en proveer su mejor opinión de tal manera que beneficiemos la misión de la Iglesia que consiste en dar a conocer el Evangelio de Jesucristo mientras atraemos a todos a la amistad con el Señor.

Debemos avanzar en este proyecto con el corazón alegre y lleno de expectativas. El miedo no puede pasar a formar parte de este proceso de discernimiento, pues sabemos que Dios dirige nuestros esfuerzos al servicio del Reino de Dios. Al hacerlo sabemos que el resultado asegura la implementación de la voluntad de Dios en nuestras comunidades de Fe. Vayamos pues hacia adelante rezando por el éxito de esta aventura…. Como siempre, el Señor es nuestro compañero fiel en la jornada.

La salvezza del Signore è per tutti i popoli.

Non si è trovato chi tornasse a rendere gloria a Dio all'infuori di questo straniero. Gesù è diretto a Gerusalemme e attraversa la Samaria. Entrato nel territorio giudaico, da lui si presentano dieci lebbrosi. Essi si tengono a distanza, come prescriveva la legge di allora, data la virulenza del contagio di una malattia ancora oggi così terribile. Nonostante queste limitazioni, i dieci lebbrosi riescono ad attirare Gesù, con la loro invocazione di aiuto. Gesù li sana tutti e dieci, invitandoli a presentarsi ai sacerdoti. Questo invito di Gesù, all'immediata prossimità della sua Passione, ha due significati ben precisi. Da un lato è il riconoscimento del sacerdozio allora in vigore e dall'altro è il donare ai dieci malati una nuova vita civile-religiosa. I dieci uomini guariti sono soddisfatti di quanto operato da Gesù stesso ma quasi tutti non sentono neanche la necessità di ritornare per ringraziare lo stesso Gesù. Uno solo di loro, un samaritano - appartenente ad un territorio considerato pagano - torna a lodare Dio in Gesù. Nel ringraziare il Signore, il samaritano mostra una vera fede; una fede sincera. Gli altri nove, anche se di religione giudaica invece, non mostrano la stessa fede. L'atto di fede del samaritano è lodato dallo stesso Gesù; il samaritano torna, proprio per questo suo atto di fede, non solo sanato nel corpo - come gli altri nove, ma anche salvato nell'anima. L'episodio della liturgia di oggi è fonte di alcune riflessioni importanti per la nostra vita. Vi è un primo invito a liberare il nostro cuore da qualsiasi pregiudizio. Gli atti più belli e più puri possono venire da persone che noi giudichiamo inferiori. Già questo porterebbe un motivo sufficiente per alimentare la nostra preghiera personale. Possiamo, però chiederci - nelle nostre preghiere - cosa domandiamo a Gesù? Siamo interessati alla nostra conversione con la salvezza o pensiamo soltanto al nostro corpo? La sollecitudine di Gesù ad esaudire i dieci lebbrosi dimostra quanto sia importante la guarigione fisica, soprattutto se con questa si ridona una dignità civile. Quanto più importante, però è la salvezza dell'anima, quella che ci fa rinascere ad una vera vita nuova? Anche questo interrogativo ci interpella nel profondo del cuore nell'invito a riconoscere le vere priorità della nostra vita. Ancora però possiamo chiederci quante volte "torniamo" a ringraziare Gesù per i suoi doni? Quante volte riconosciamo il suo intervento nella nostra vita? O Piuttosto crediamo che tutto ci debba essere come dovuto di diritto...?

Il nostro Pellegrinaggio nell'Anno Santo della Misericordia

Sara Sabato, 15 ottobre, 2016, alla Chiesa di San John Vianney in Northlake. Padre Augusto e quelli che possono venire a piedi, la partenza sara alle ore nove del mattino, da Casa Italia con la recita del Rosario. Altri possono venire in bicicletta o con I'automobile. Alle ore 10 entreremo assiame, cantando un'inno alla Madonna passando per la "PORTA SANTA", con I'acquisto dell' Indulgenza plenaria. Quindi prenderemo parte alla S. Messa e poi il ritorno alle proprie famiglie.

Questo pellegrinaggio, secondo le intenzione di Papa Francesco, ha un significato ben precioso: siamo in cammino in questa vita, incontro Signore.

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"PLUNGED" AND "CLEANSED"

Clear parallels exist between the characters in today's scripture stories and our own lives as Christians. Just as Naaman was "plunged into the Jordan" (2 Kings 5:14) we were plunged—the word "baptize" is derived from a root word meaning "plunge"—into the waters of baptism. Just as Naaman became "like . . . a little child" (2 Kings 5:14), in baptism we were born into new life as children of God. Just as the lepers in the Gospel turned to Jesus for mercy and "were cleansed" and "healed" (Luke 17:14, 15), we, too, were washed clean and healed of our sins in baptism. Finally, like both Naaman and the Samaritan leper, most of us have never been members of the Jewish people. Yet we are among those of whom the Letter to Timothy speaks: In baptism we were "chosen, so that [we] too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, together with eternal glory" (2 Timothy 2:10).

GIVING THANKS

We who have received so much healing through Christ should devote our lives to giving God thanks and praise. All of us were "foreigners" until we were baptized. None of us deserves God's daily mercy and care. And it is through our public expressions of thanks for God's grace in our lives that others come to know the saving power of Jesus Christ. Thus, public thanksgiving is central to the life of Christian discipleship.

The Eucharist is our primary means of giving public praise and thanks to God. Together we give thanks for the gifts of creation and the covenant. We give thanks for the gift of salvation that is ours through Jesus Christ and for the gifts of abundant life, unity, and healing that the Holy Spirit continually pours out on us. During the Eucharist we also "sing joyfully to the Lord" (Psalm 98:4) in thanksgiving for the daily gifts of God in each of our lives. In the words that we say before every Eucharistic Prayer, "It is right to give [God] thanks and praise."
