SUNDAY XXIX O.T. Jesus explains to the disciples a parable about the need to pray always, without stopping. Prayer is not a life's decoration, but a necessity, for us and for the world in which we live. (Second part of the message for Sunday Mission). It is with a life of prayer that the Church generously responds to the call to leave behind home, family, country, language and local Church, and to be sent forth to the nations, to a world not yet transformed by the sacraments of Jesus Christ and his holy Church, insists Pope Francis. By proclaiming God's word, bearing witness to the Gospel and celebrating the life of the Spirit, they summon to conversion, baptize and offer Christian salvation, with respect for the freedom of each person and in dialogue with the cultures and religions of the peoples to whom they are sent. The missio ad gentes, which is always necessary for the Church, thus contributes in a fundamental way to the process of ongoing conversion in all Christians. Faith in the Easter event of Jesus; the ecclesial mission received in baptism; the geographic and cultural detachment from oneself and one's own home; the need for salvation from sin and liberation from personal and social evil: all these demand the mission that reaches to the very ends of the earth. The providential coincidence of this centenary year with the celebration of the Special Synod on the Churches in the Amazon allows me to stress how the mission entrusted to us by Jesus with the gift of his Spirit is also timely and necessary for those lands and their peoples. A renewed Pentecost opens wide the doors of the Church, in order that no culture remain closed in on itself and no people cut off from the universal communion of the faith. No one ought to remain closed in self-absorption, in the self-referentiality of his or her own ethnic and religious affiliation. The Easter event of Jesus breaks through the narrow limits of worlds, religions and cultures, calling them to grow in respect for the dignity of men and women, and towards a deeper conversion to the truth of the Risen Lord who gives authentic life to all. Here I am reminded of the words of Pope Benedict XVI at the beginning of the meeting of Latin American Bishops at Aparecida, Brazil, in 2007. I would like to repeat these words and make them my own: "Yet what did the acceptance of the Christian faith mean for the nations of Latin America and the Caribbean? For them, it meant knowing and welcoming Christ, the unknown God whom their ancestors were seeking, without realizing it, in their rich religious traditions. Christ is the Saviour for whom they were silently longing. It also meant that they received, in the waters of Baptism, the divine life that made them children of God by adoption; moreover, they received the Holy Spirit who came to make their cultures fruitful, purifying them and developing the numerous seeds that the incarnate Word had planted in them, thereby guiding them along the paths of the Gospel… The Word of God, in becoming flesh in Jesus Christ, also became history and culture. The utopia of going back to breathe life into the pre-Columbian religions, separating them from Christ and from the universal Church, would not be a step forward: indeed, it would be a step back. In reality, it would be a retreat towards a stage in history anchored in the past" (Address at the Inaugural Session, 13 May 2007). We entrust the Church's mission to Mary our Mother. In union with her Son, from the moment of the Incarnation the Blessed Virgin set out on her pilgrim way. She was fully involved in the mission of Jesus, a mission that became her own at the foot of the Cross: the mission of cooperating, as Mother of the Church, in bringing new sons and daughters of God to birth in the Spirit and in faith. May you and I commit in a deep prayer life witness faithfully our mission.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Today we celebrate World Mission Sunday during this Extraordinary Mission Month. Let us remember the mission at the heart of our Christian faith – to share the Good News with the world! The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith supports the priests, religious and lay leaders who embody Christ's mercy and presence among the most vulnerable communities in our world. They have been charged to proclaim the Word persistently; when it is convenient and in convenient. Let us pray and offer our support for the Church's worldwide missionary efforts.

WE REMEMBER OUR FAITHFUL DEPARTED

The days of All Saints and the Dead are approaching. We invite you to remember them and to join in prayer in their memory. We will celebrate Mass for them November 1 & 2 at 5:30 PM in the Church. At the entrance of the Church you will find the envelopes to remember your dead. Take an ENVELOPE and write down the names of your beloved ones and make an offering in their memory and we will pray for them, keeping their envelopes in the altar throughout the month of November. United in prayer in the Risen Christ.

Del Escritorio del Párroco

DOMINGO XXIX T.O. Jesús explica a los discípulos una parábola sobre la necesidad de orar siempre, sin desfallecer. La oración no es un adorno de la vida, sino una necesidad, para nosotros y para el mundo en el que vivimos. (Segunda parte del mensaje Dia de las Misiones). Es con la fuerza de la oración que como Iglesia seguimos respondiendo generosamente a la llamada a salir de su propia casa, su propia familia, su propia patria, su propia lengua, su propia Iglesia local, nos insiste Papa Francisco. Los misioneros/as son enviados a las gentes en el mundo que aún no está transfigurado por los sacramentos de Jesucristo y de su santa Iglesia. Anunciando la Palabra de Dios, testimoniando el Evangelio y celebrando la vida del Espíritu llaman a la conversión, bautizan y ofrecen la salvación cristiana en el respeto de la libertad personal de cada uno, en diálogo con las culturas y las religiones de los pueblos donde son enviados. La missio ad gentes, siempre necesaria en la Iglesia, contribuye así de manera fundamental al proceso de conversión permanente de todos los cristianos. La fe en la pascua de Jesús, el envío eclesial bautismal, la salida geográfica y cultural de sí y del propio hogar, la necesidad de salvación del pecado y la liberación del mal personal y social exigen que la misión llegue hasta los últimos rincones de la tierra. La coincidencia providencial con la celebración del Sínodo especial de los obispos para la región Panamazónica me lleva a destacar que la misión confiada por Jesús, con el don de su espíritu, sigue siendo actual y necesaria también para los habitantes de esas tierras. Un Pentecostés renovado abre las puertas de la Iglesia para que ninguna cultura permanezca cerrada en sí misma y ningún pueblo se quede aislado, sino que se abran a la comunión universal de la fe. Que nadie se quede encerrado en el propio yo, en la autorreferencialidad de la propia pertenencia étnica y religiosa. La pascua de Jesús rompe los estrechos límites de mundos, religiones y culturas, llamándolos a crecer en el respeto por la dignidad del hombre y de la mujer, hacia una conversión cada vez más plena a la verdad del Señor resucitado que nos da a todos la vida verdadera. A este respecto, me vienen a la mente las palabras del papa Benedicto XVI al comienzo del encuentro de obispos latinoamericanos en Aparecida, Brasil, en el año 2007, palabras que deseo aquí recordar y hacer mías: «¿Qué ha significado la aceptación de la fe cristiana para los pueblos de América Latina y del Caribe? Para ellos ha significado conocer y acoger a Cristo, el Dios desconocido que sus antepasados, sin saberlo, buscaban en sus ricas tradiciones religiosas. Cristo era el Salvador que anhelaban silenciosamente. Ha significado también haber recibido, con las aguas del bautismo, la vida divina que los hizo hijos de Dios por adopción; haber recibido, además, el Espíritu Santo que ha venido a fecundar sus culturas, purificándolas y desarrollando los numerosos gérmenes y semillas que el Verbo encarnado había puesto en ellas, orientándolas así por los caminos del Evangelio. [...] El Verbo de Dios, haciéndose carne en Jesucristo, se hizo también historia y cultura. La utopía de volver a dar vida a las religiones precolombinas, separándolas de Cristo y de la Iglesia universal, no sería un progreso, sino un retroceso. En realidad sería una involución hacia un momento histórico anclado en el pasado» (Discurso en la Sesión inaugural, 13 mayo 2007). Confiemos a María, nuestra Madre, la misión de la Iglesia. La Virgen, unida a su Hijo desde la encarnación, se puso en movimiento, participó totalmente en la misión de Jesús, misión que a los pies de la cruz se convirtió también en su propia misión: colaborar como Madre de la Iglesia que en el Espíritu y en la fe engendra nuevos hijos e hijas de Dios. Que tú y Yo comprometido en una vida de oración como la viuda vivamos nuestra misión con fidelidad.

Fr. Feccia's Reflection

VENTINOVESIMA DOMENICA — ANNO "C" — Un nido in un giorno di primavera. Al suo interno alcuni uccellini ancora implumi, col becco spalancato verso il cielo lanciano continuamente un richiamo inarticolato... e il cibo non si fa attendere. Gesù avrebbe potuto servirsi di quest'immagine per parlare della perseveranza nella preghiera. Ha preferito invece presentarci, sotto forma di parabola, una scena dal vivo, una vedova ostinata, con la sua insistenza, riesce a costringere un giudice menefreghista a farle giustizia,

Da questo racconto non dobbiamo dedurrre che per modo migliore per pregare Dio sia quello di ripetere fino all'esa-sperazione le nostre domande: soltanto i pagani che a forza di parole finiranno con l'essere esauditi (Mt.6,7). D'altra parte, Dio non è un giudice che trascura di rendere giustizia: tuttavia vuole che gli esprimiamo senza stancarci i nostri bisogni. La cattiva volontà del giudice della parabola viene sottolineata per farci comprendere che è evidente che Dio darà soddisfazione a coloro che lo implorano e, a differenza di quell'uomo iniquo, non tarderà a fare giustizia.

È proprio questo il problema dei destinatari della parabola. Dio sembra non rispondere e non voler intervenire, cosa serve pregare? Incoraggiato i suoi a perseverare nonostante tutto nelle loro domande, Gesù suggerisce il rapporto che collega la preghiera alla fede. Indubbiamente non si fa delle illusioni, «al figlio dell'uomo, quando verrà, troverà fede sulla terra?» L'interrogativo è grave, ma ciò che conta, per Cristo, è farci comprendere che la fede, per non indebolirsi e scomparire, per fiorire nelle opere e rimanere vigilante ha bisogno del pane, come una pianta, ha bisogno d'acqua. Preghiamo perché la fede è una realtà viva, che sussiste soltanto se viene vissuta, dobbiamo pregare sempre senza stancarci.

La tolleranza di Dio —Pregare senza stancarci vuol dire accettare le lentezze della crescita della del regno, poiché Dio stesso accetta: vuol dire riconoscere le lentezze della conversione dei peccatori (e innanzitutto le proprie), poiché Dio le sopporta. La preghiera diventa così un mezzo per manifestare chi è Dio e come Egli si comporti riguardo all'uomo. Dio ci attende, senza pretendere di trovare ancora della fede nell'uomo. Anche il cristiano che prega è in attesa, senza di essere certo di raggiungere il suo scopo. Poco importa: la preghiera afferma un'esigenza di giustizia, ma condivide ancora la pazienza di Dio, che attende dall'uomo la conversione.
