Who are the Priests serving at Mount Carmel?

MISSIONARIES OF ST. CHARLES - Scalabrinians

The Congregation of the Missionaries of St. Charles – Scalabrinians – is an International community of religious serving migrants and refugees of different cultures, religions and ethnicities in 32 countries and on five continents.

The Congregation was founded on November 28, 1887, by Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini (1839-1905), bishop of Piacenza (Italy). It was the period of massive emigration from Italy and Europe toward the Americas. It was a far-reaching phenomenon whose importance Bishop Scalabrini was able to grasp in both its social and religious dimensions.

Our missionary focus has been to be migrants with the migrants and to be in mission with people on the move along with a special priority for the poorest migrants. What has become very obvious is that as we have taken more missionary risks and made an effort to clarify our Charism we have been blessed with more and more vocations.

From the Pastor's Desk

October count is happening in our Parish every weekend. This is a practice requested by the Archdiocese of Chicago in order to have a better idea of how many Catholics attend Sunday Mass on regular basis. Our records show that an average of approximately 2,700 people come to Our Lady of Mount Carmel in order to keep holy the day of the Lord, making our Faith Community one of the largest ones in the entire Archdiocese. This high numbers are a concrete expression of how good people feel in coming to worship with us, at the same time they reflect what a vibrant Spiritual Family we are. At a moment when most Parishes experience low mass attendance, we can feel the confidence and joy of being a church where weekend activities are still happening at full speed.

Our being disciples of Jesus Christ is best expressed in our willingness to gather together and celebrate the Eucharist. In Word and Sacrament, the God of life continues to instruct and nourish His people while we seek to better live out the Good News of Salvation. Nowadays Christians are urged to witness their faith by the way we embrace Jesus' teaching, by the way we respond to the challenges of this world with a Gospel oriented attitude, by the time we spent in silent prayer in dialogue with God, etc. However, the most Solemn and concrete expression of our Faith is our celebration of the Eucharist every Sunday. Since the beginning of Christianity in the early Church, the importance of celebrating the day of Christ's Resurrection was a common way of identifying the followers of Jesus.

We cannot pretend to be active members of the Church and avoid gathering together to praise and worship the Lord who saved us. In fact, it is active participation in the Sunday Liturgy how we best express our belonging to any given Faith community. Contrary to a common believe in people's heart, the Church is not a social club, it is not a cultural oriented gathering of peoples, and of course it has nothing to do with bringing together people whose common philosophy of life, cluster to promote time-elapsed ideals… The Church is an assembly of God's Holy People whose common initiation in Christ -through Baptism, Confirmation and weekly celebration of Sunday Communion-, moves them to promote the Gospel of Jesus while celebrating their faith in faithful gatherings of Thanksgiving when coming to Sunday Mass. Hence the importance of Coming to Church on Weekends… Hence the importance of October Counting…

Adsum,

CALLING ALL SINGERS AND MUSICIANS!

- Now is the time to share your love of music with your Parish. Come, join the Festival Choir as we prepare for Christmas celebrations.
- All are welcomed to the music ministry program, which meets on Tuesday from 6:45pm to 8:30pm in the St. Anthony Room. (Choir does not meet on the last Tuesday of the month)
- We are a multi-generational, multi-lingual choir. Instrumentalists and vocalist alike are most welcomed!

A NOTE OF THANKS

I would like to extend my gratitude to each one of you for your concern on my behalf. After not feeling so well last Saturday, I was taken to the hospital were doctors ran test and kept me under observation for two days. After being released and some time of rest, I am back to normal and looking forward to continue to serve all of you.

Blessings,

Fr. Miguel Alvarez, c.s.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Imagine the frustration of bishops who work strenuously over their ad limina reports, directing study committees, assembling data, honing the texts, traveling to Rome "to the threshold," only to have it all collapse into a fifteen-minute group meeting with the pope. More than a few have grumbled at the weight of this "treasure" from our tradition, yet from the pope's vantage point, they are essential to his ministry.

Pope John Paul II recalled his own experience as the Bishop of Kraków, visiting with Pope Paul VI in the late 1960s and early 1970s. The memory of those individual visits caused him to strengthen the format, assuring each of the world's 2,744 bishops a privileged fifteen private minutes with the pope every five years. If you wonder what the pope does all day, the thought of dealing with five hundred bishops a year and reading their detailed reports on diocesan life should help fill up the calendar. Pope John Paul II used to say that he approached each individual meeting with the personal goal of learning something new about the Church, and his lively interest made the visits immensely worthwhile. The content of the private meetings remains under a privilege of secrecy, or as Cardinal Theodore McCarrick once said, "You're only supposed to quote the pope if he tells a joke."

Mensaje del Párroco

Cada Domingo durante todo el mes de Octubre estamos contando la asistencia a Misa Dominical. Esta práctica ayuda a la Arquidiócesis de Chicago a tener una idea clara de cuantas son las personas que practican su Fe. Es importante conocer el número de creyentes que asisten a la Eucaristía los fines de semana porque eso proporciona una idea clara de la vitalidad parroquial al mismo tiempo que nos muestra hacia donde debemos dirigir la actividad misionera-evangelizadora de la Iglesia. De una manera especial, el conteo de octubre de este año tendrá una repercusión directa en nuestras comunidades de Fe debido al proyecto "Renueva mi Iglesia" que el Arzobispo de Chicago ha iniciado en la Arquidiócesis desde hace algunos meses.

La asistencia a Misa Dominical es, sin duda, la mejor manera como los creyentes en Cristo podemos manifestar nuestra Fe. No se puede ser un discípulo autentico de Jesús y pensar que nuestra presencia en la Iglesia los Domingos no sea importante. Es precisamente en el reunirnos a celebrar la Resurrección del Señor en torno al altar de la Iglesia que nuestra Fe se fortalece y nuestra fraternidad crece y se vuelve más auténtica. Al congregarnos cada Domingo, como Familia de Dios en la Parroquia, hacemos autentica y real en el mundo la presencia de Cristo el Señor que ha venido para salvar a los que estaban perdidos y a conducirnos a todos hacia el Padre de las Misericordias. Nos acercamos al Altar dando Gracias y conscientes que en la Sagrada Comunión el Creador de todos nos nutre con el Pan de la Vida y el Cáliz de la salvación; comulgando el cuerpo de Cristo, nos volvemos Iglesia, es decir miembros vivos del Señor Resucitado y testigos de su Evangelio en el mundo. Por todo esto es tan importante que santifiquemos el día del Señor celebrando la misa los Domingos.

Durante estos fines de semana, estamos también ofreciendo la posibilidad de registrarse en nuestro Santuario Parroquial. Es importante que, como miembros de esta Comunidad de Fe, nos registremos y ojalá también adoptemos la costumbre de utilizar los sobres dominicales para nuestra ofrenda, esto nos convierte en miembros activos de la iglesia con posibilidades y beneficios que en otro momento explicaremos. Celebremos nuestra Fe y animemos a otros a hacerlo invitándoles a celebrar con nosotros este Misterio de Fe tan profundo y único que es la Eucaristía.

Adsum,

Nota de Agradacimiento

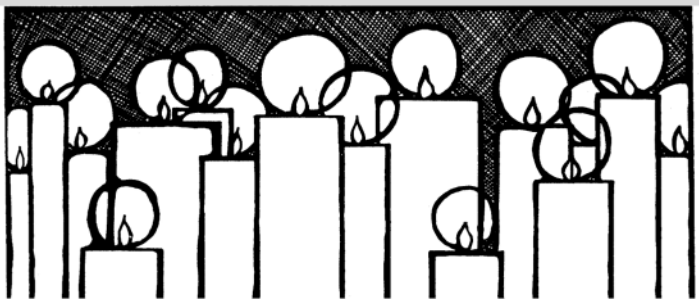
Mi gratitud a cada uno de ustedes por sus atenciones y detalles durante los ultimos dias. Debido a unos sintomas preocupantes , el Sabado pasado fui llevado al hospital. Despues de dos dias de estudios y observacion medica, fui dado de alta. Con unos dias de reposo me encuentro en condiciones de continuar sirviendo con ganas y entusiasmo.

Bendiciones,

P. Miguel Alvarez, c.s.

Durante el mes de Octubre a la entrada de la Iglesia, puede recoger su sobres para las intencinones de sus fieles difuntos.

Inscriba los nombres en el sobre, y regreselos con su donacion antes del 30 de Octubre.



NO HACER COMPARACIONES

¿Cuántas veces hemos leído o escuchado acerca de alguien que se metió en problemas, incluso despedido de su empleo, por un roce con la ley? Mientras nuestras mentes "cristianas" nos dicen que nos apiademos de esa persona y que roguemos por ella, puede que una vocecita interior también esté diciendo: "Me alegro de que yo nunca haría algo así".

Y tal vez no lo haríamos. Pero, ¿hay algunas cosas que hacemos que no agradan a Dios? Las lecturas de hoy nos advierten no mirar tan atentamente a las maldades de otros que pasamos por alto nuestras propias debilidades y defectos. Cuando nos comparamos con las peores personas a nuestro alrededor, salimos bastante bien. Sin embargo, hay un peligro en usar la conducta ajena como medida para reflejar nuestras propias virtudes.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1823 se fundó el pueblo de San Rafael de las Quebradillas en Puerto Rico. Este pueblo fue dedicado al santo patrón de los pescadores. Rafael, también es el ángel patrono de la salud. Aunque hoy día su fiesta esta combinada con los otros arcángeles el 29 de septiembre, en el viejo calendario este santo fue conmemorado el 24 de octubre.

Rafael (Dios salva) se encuentra en el libro de Tobías y según el autor bíblico, este es el ángel de la guarda de Tobías. El mismo Rafael se presenta como uno de los siete ángeles o arcángeles que llevan las oraciones de los justos al trono de Dios y que gozan de la presencia gloriosa del Santísimo (Tobías 12:15).

Mi padre siempre dice que hay que pedir una cosa a Dios, la salud. Si tenemos la salud nada nos falta. Es interesante que en latín, salud y salvación son la misma palabra, salus. El santo patrón de la salud, Rafael nos recuerda que Dios es el único que nos puede salvar, dándonos salud de cuerpo, alma y espíritu.

Fr. Feccia's Reflection

«Due uomini salirono al tempio a pregare». È tipico della caricatura cogliere un elemento del modello prescelto e metterlo in evidenza esagerandone i tratti. Con un procedimento analogo Gesù descrive i due estremi della società religiosa del suo tempo, presentando due opposti atteggiamenti spirituali. Questo quadretto riguarda da vicino ciascuno di noi: in quale personaggio possiamo riconoscerci? nel fariseo o nel pubblicano? Incontriamo in primo luogo il fariseo, con la sua magnifica «eucarestia»: «Dio, ti ringrazio…» Non chiede nulla per sé, e sicuramente non è un ipocrita: ciò che chiede corrisponde ad una pratica che egli osserva scrupolosamente. Ma ne è troppo consapevole: rivolge una grande attenzione a se stesso: si ascolta a pregare. E soprattutto, giudica gli altri. Per quanto riguarda Dio, se ne interessa unicamente nella misura in cui non mancherà di riconoscere i suoi meriti eccezionali.

Di fronte a questo uomo pio tanto sicuro di sé, il pubblicano non improvvisa una preghiera di grazie, ma semplicemente si confessa non perché sente il bisogno di scavare nella propria coscienza (il fariseo l'ha già fatto per lui) o di elencare le proprie colpe, quanto piuttosto per esprimere tutto il dolore che prova. Non trovando nulla che possa dargli sicurezza di fronte al giudice, si affida alla misericordia divina: da essa soltanto spera di ricevere la propria esistenza come un dono, come una grazia. «Questi tornò a casa sua giustificato, a differenza dell'altro».

«Salire non molto in alto, ma da soli!», esclama Cirano di Bergerac. Il cristiano invece, sa che il giusto è sempre un uomo giustificato, salvato da Dio, al di là di qualsiasi merito. Siamo sufficientemente convinti di questo, quando preghiamo? Il miglior indice rivelatore di ciò che siamo davanti a Dio, è ancora la nostra preghiera.

Il fariseo e il pubblicano— Il pubblicano è in uno stato di confusione completa: come potrebbe ottenere il perdono senza cambiar vita e senza rimborsare le persone che ha defraudato? Agli occhi dei «benpensanti» il suo caso è senza soluzione. Ma il cuore di Dio ha sempre una soluzione per i casi disperati: Egli ama il peccatore e lo giustifica, poiché si è posto in un atteggiamento di umiltà, che lo trasforma in purificazione, comunione e giustizia. Il fariseo invece non ha alcuna apertura verso Dio, tanto è preoccupato del rendimento delle sue azioni religiose, che aumentano le sue «benemerenze» nel tempo. Come potrebbe Dio entrare in rapporto con un uomo così autosufficiente e sprezzante degli altri? La sua preghiera si riduce ad un monologo dinnanzi a un Dio muto.

Il fariseo e il pubblicano: due modi di dialogare con Dio

Nella parabola ci sono due modi di concepire l'uomo e il suo rapporto con Dio. La preghiera del fariseo è un rendimento di grazie a Dio. Solo apparente però. In realtà è un pretesto per lodare se stesso e non Dio, compiacersi di sé per la mancanza di ogni peccato e per il merito delle buone opere, in forza delle quali si ritiene giustificato ed «esige» da Dio la ricompensa. La preghiera del fariseo non è preghiera, anzi è l'opposto.

Il pubblicano invece è «nella verità»: è consapevole della sua colpa e di non avere meriti davanti a Dio. Chiede grazia. La sua è vera preghiera.

Perciò dietro i due personaggi della parabola si può scorgere l'opposizione tra due tipi di giustizia: quella dell'uomo che ritiene di poterla realizzare col compimento perfetto della legge e quella che Dio concede al peccatore che si riconosce tale e che si converte. Il tema paolino della giustificazione mediante la fede si trova già delineato in questa parabola.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

BLIND JUSTICE

A statue of Blind Justice stands atop many courts of law in the United States. She wears a blindfold and holds the scales of justice. She represents the ideal expressed in today's reading from Sirach—that each person will be treated equally in the eyes of the law and that judges will "[judge] justly and [affirm] the right" (Sirach 35:18) based solely on the justness of each plaintiff's case.

Yet we know that the wealthy can buy very good lawyers, giving them an edge in the courtroom. We know that blacks far outnumber whites on death row. We also know that high-profile defendants are often tried and convicted by the media before the judge and jury ever enter the court. However careful, no human judge or human justice system can be completely blind to factors such as race, wealth, religion, gender, age, or background.

THE MERCY OF THE COURT

In comparison, today's scriptures depict God as "the just judge" who offers every person an equal measure of justice. Like the Pharisee in today's Gospel, we must be careful not to overestimate our own worthiness or to judge the unworthiness of others. Like the apostle Paul, we must realize that, if we are judged to be righteous in the courts of God, it will be based not on our status as Christians, or on our good deeds, or on any other factor by which we might exalt ourselves. Instead, it will be solely because we asked for and relied on God's mercy.

Sirach reminds us that God is swift to hear and respond to every person who cries out for mercy, even those whom the world despises as unworthy. "Those who [are] convinced of their own righteousness and despise everyone else" (Luke 18:9) would be well advised to humble themselves enough to beg for mercy, or they may get a surprise on judgment day!
