From the Pastor's Desk

The Feast of Thanksgiving is one of my favorite American Holidays! From the many celebrations we encounter in the calendar, the fourth Thursday of November, dedicated to honor the bounty of God, is the most family oriented of them all, and that is what makes out of this occasion, such a special moment. All family members seated around the dining table, enjoying the best of family recipes, and sharing experiences and adventures is the picture that best reflects what God dreams of, when we speak of family life. It is indeed a time to fill our hearts with gratitude for the gift of presence, for the possibility of human relationships and for the opportunity to share the earth's goods.

As we approach this festivity, and while I present to you the state of the Parish, I would like to take the opportunity and share with you all a word of thanks. While my journey at Mount Carmel as Pastor of this beautiful community comes to an end, my heart couldn't be more grateful; I cannot help but realize that indeed it has been a blessed journey… and it was so, because many people of good will decided to join in the adventure and ride with me in my attempts to serve the Church to the best of my abilities. I would like to extend my gratefulness to all the members of the Pastoral Council, those serving in the Financial council and development committee, the many ministers in our Liturgical services (Ushers, Readers, Communion Ministers, Choirs, volunteers, etc), the altar Servers (both youngsters and adults), the ones participating in the many auxiliary groups, the incredible volunteers in our Religious Education Program, the many attending the needs of people at the Community Center and the many unknown faces and names whose efforts makes it possible for our Mission to be carried out in committed faithfulness. To each one of you: Thanks a lot! Thank You very much!!!

Of course, those in the forefront of our service, are the dedicated and loving members of the staff. To each one of you: Gratitude and many blessings! You are the true heroes of this story for it wouldn't be because of your incredible commitment, our ministry in this place would be an impossible mission. It is my prayer, that you may embrace the future with courage and passion, to continue making out of Mount Carmel, one of the best places to worship God and celebrate fraternity.

Adsum,

¡La celebración de Acción de Gracias, es una de mis favoritas! El cuarto Jueves de noviembre nos brinda la posibilidad de reunirnos a agradecer la generosidad de Dios. En cada hogar la familia se reúne en torno a la mesa, y mientras comparten la comida y sus aventuras, se entrelazan los lazos de cariño y veneración familiar que tanto bien hacen en nuestra existencia. Esa imagen de la familia reunida y compartiendo en genuina alegría, es la que mejor expresa la idea de familia que Dios propone como alternativa para rescatar nuestra humanidad desconcertada.

Al acercarse esta celebración, y mientras presento a ustedes el Estado Anual de la Parroquia, me gustaría tomar la oportunidad y compartir unas palabras de gratitud y reconocimiento. Cercano ya el final de mi termino como Párroco de esta comunidad, mi corazón se encuentra lleno de agradecimiento; de verdad que ha sido una experiencia maravillosa, y eso se debe a los tantos parroquianos que se comprometieron como compañeros de camino y colaboradores de la misión. Mi gratitud profunda a los miembros del consejo pastoral de la parroquia, a quienes componen el consejo financiero, a los numerosos ministros litúrgicos que ayudan en las misas (Ujieres, Lectores, Ministros de Comunión, Coros, Voluntarios, etc.), a los monaguillos (los jóvenes y los adultos), a los que forman parte de algún grupo parroquial, los increíbles voluntarios del Programa de Educación Religiosa, a quienes atienden las necesidades de los que llegan al Centro Comunitario, y a las muchos nombres y rostros cuyos esfuerzos hacen posible que nuestra misión aquí en la Parroquia sea llevada a cabo con fidelidad y compromiso. A cada uno de ustedes: ¡Un millón de Gracias! ¡Gracias a cada uno y cada una!

Por supuesto que quienes ocupan un lugar indispensable en este proyecto son los trabajadores de la Parroquia. A cada uno de ustedes: ¡Gratitud y Bendiciones! Ustedes son los verdaderos héroes de esta historia, pues sin su ayuda y colaboración, nuestro ministerio en este lugar hubiese sido una misión imposible. Rezo para que cada uno pueda abrazar el futuro con optimismo y mucho valor, de tal manera que continúen haciendo de Monte Carmelo uno de los mejores lugares de la Arquidiócesis donde adorar a Dios y celebrar la Fraternidad sea una posibilidad al alcance de la mano.

CHRISTIAN STEWERDSHIP
A Strong sign of our discipleship

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace"
(1 Pt 4:10).

What identifies a steward? Safeguarding material and human resources and using them responsibly are one answer; so is generous giving of time, talent, and treasure. But being a Christian steward means more. As Christian stewards, we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord.

People who want to live as Christian disciples and Christian stewards face serious obstacles. In the United States and other nations, a dominant secular culture often contradicts religious convictions about the meaning of life. This culture frequently encourages us to focus on ourselves and our pleasures.

At times, we can find it far too easy to ignore spiritual realities and to deny religion a role in shaping human and social values. As Catholics who have entered into the mainstream of American society and experienced its advantages, many of us also have been adversely influenced by this secular culture. We know what it is to struggle against selfishness and greed, and we realize that it is harder for many today to accept the challenge of being a Christian steward. It is essential, therefore, that we make a special effort to understand the true meaning of stewardship and live accordingly.

Coming together every Sunday and celebrating the Eucharist is the best expression of what it means to be an active members of the Church. It is when the baptized children of God gather to celebrate the memorial of Jesus' passion, death and Resurrection that we can best express being living members of the body of Christ, called to worship the Lord of life.

However, belonging to a church group allows the person to grow in faith while striving to establish in the world the presence of our Savior. Here at OLMC we can encounter a variety of groups and societies that gift our community with a diversity of charismas where the action of the Holy Spirit is best expressed.
