XXXIV SUNDAY O.T. – SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING – LAST SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME & SUNDAY OF HUMAN DEVELOPMENT. We conclude the liturgical year in which we have read and meditated the gospel of Luke where he offered the meaningful teachings of Jesus: the merciful parables, the beatitudes and his options for the needy and vulnerable. For our reflection, I will propose the second part of Pope Francis message for the Day of the Poor. This Sunday as we pray and generously support Human Development Campaign. Pope Francis states, we can never elude the urgent appeal that Scripture makes on behalf of the poor. Wherever we look, the word of God points to the poor, those who lack the necessities of life, because they depend on others. They are the oppressed, the lowly and the downcast. Yet, faced with countless throngs of the poor, Jesus was not afraid to identify with each of them: “Whatever you did to one of the least of these my brethren, you did to me” (Mt 25:40). If we refuse to make this identification, we falsify the Gospel and water down God’s revelation. The God that Jesus came to reveal is a Father who is generous, merciful, unfailing in his goodness and grace. He gives hope especially to those who are disillusioned and lacking in hope for the future. How can we fail to note that the Beatitudes with which Jesus began his preaching of the kingdom of God open with the words: “Blessed are you who are poor” (Lk 6:20)? The Church comes to realize that she is one people, spread throughout many nations and called to ensure that no one feels a stranger or outcast, for she includes everyone in a shared journey of salvation. Commitment to the promotion of the poor, including their social promotion, is not foreign to the proclamation of the Gospel. “The option for those who are least, those whom society discards” is a priority that Christ’s followers are called to pursue, so as not to impugn the Church’s credibility but to give real hope to many of our vulnerable brothers and sisters. Christian charity finds concrete expression in them, for by their compassion and their willingness to share the love of Christ with those in need, they are themselves strengthened and confirm the preaching of the Gospel. The involvement of Christians in this World Day of the Poor and especially in the events of everyday life, goes beyond initiatives of assistance. Praiseworthy and necessary as the latter may be, they should have the goal of encouraging in everyone a greater concern for individuals in any kind of distress. Dear brothers and sisters, I encourage you to seek, in every poor person whom you encounter, his or her true needs, not to stop at their most obvious material needs, but to discover their inner goodness, paying heed to their background and their way of expressing themselves, and in this way to initiate a true fraternal dialogue. Never forget that “the worst discrimination which the poor suffer is the lack of spiritual care”. Before all else, the poor need God and his love, people who by the simplicity of their lives express clearly the power of Christian love. God uses any number of ways and countless means to reach people’s hearts. Certainly, the poor come to us also because we give them food, but what they really need is more than our offer of a warm meal or a sandwich. The poor need our hands, to be lifted up; our hearts, to feel anew the warmth of affection; our presence, to overcome loneliness. In a word, they need love. At times, very little is needed to restore hope. It is enough to stop for a moment, smile and listen. The poor are persons to be encountered; they are lonely, young and old, to be invited to our homes to share a meal; men women and children who look for a friendly word. The poor save us because they enable us to encounter the face of Jesus Christ. The hope of the poor is confirmed in the certainty that their voice is heard by the Lord, that in him they will find true justice, that their hearts will be strengthened and continue to love. If the disciples of the Lord Jesus wish to be genuine evangelizers, they must sow tangible seeds of hope. Therefore, I ask all Christian communities, and all those who feel impelled to offer hope and consolation to the poor, to help ensure that this World Day of the Poor will encourage more and more people to cooperate effectively so that no one will feel deprived of closeness and solidarity. May you always treasure the words of the prophet who proclaims a different future: “For you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings” (Mal 3:20).

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT ANNUAL COLLECTION

Please be generous in this week's special collection, which supports the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in six people live in poverty. Through this collection, you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for people across the country who struggle. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

XXXIV DOMINGO T.O. – SOLEMNIDAD DE CRISTO REY – ULTIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO & DOMINGO DEL DESARROLLO HUMANO. Concluimos este año y camino litúrgico en donde hemos leído y meditado con el Evangelista Lucas sobre las grandes enseñanzas del ministerio de Jesús: sus parábolas de la misericordia, sus bienaventuranzas y su gran amor para las personas vulnerables y necesitadas. Por nuestra reflexión a continuación les dejo las palabras del Papa Francisco, con la segunda parte de su mensaje por la III Jornada de los Pobres. Dice Papa Francisco, no hay forma de eludir la llamada apremiante que la Sagrada Escritura confía a los pobres. Dondequiera que se mire, la Palabra de Dios indica que los pobres son aquellos que no disponen de lo necesario para vivir porque dependen de los demás. Ellos son el oprimido, el humilde, el que está postrado en tierra. Aun así, ante esta multitud innumerable de indigentes, Jesús no

tuvo miedo de identificarse con cada uno de ellos: «Cada vez que lo hicisteis con uno de estos, mis hermanos más pequeños, conmigo lo hicisteis» (Mt 25,40). Huir de esta identificación equivale a falsificar el Evangelio y atenuar la revelación. El Dios que Jesús quiso revelar es éste: un Padre generoso, misericordioso, inagotable en su bondad y gracia, que ofrece esperanza sobre todo a los que están desilusionados y privados de futuro. ¿Cómo no destacar que las bienaventuranzas, con las que Jesús inauguró la predicación del Reino de Dios, se abren con esta expresión: «Bienaventurados los pobres» (Lc 6,20)? La Iglesia, estando cercana a los pobres, se reconoce como un pueblo extendido entre tantas naciones cuya vocación es la de no permitir que nadie se sienta extraño o excluido, porque implica a todos en un camino común de salvación. La condición de los pobres obliga a no distanciarse de ninguna manera del Cuerpo del Señor que sufre en ellos. Más bien, estamos llamados a tocar su carne para comprometernos en primera persona en un servicio que constituye auténtica evangelización. La opción por los últimos es una opción prioritaria que los discípulos de Cristo están llamados a realizar para no traicionar la credibilidad de la Iglesia y dar esperanza efectiva a tantas personas indefensas. En ellas, la caridad cristiana encuentra su verificación, porque quien se compadece de sus sufrimientos con el amor de Cristo recibe fuerza y confiere vigor al anuncio del Evangelio. El compromiso de los cristianos, con ocasión de esta Jornada Mundial y sobre todo en la vida ordinaria de cada día, no consiste sólo en iniciativas de asistencia que, si bien son encomiables y necesarias, deben tender a incrementar en cada uno la plena atención que le es debida a cada persona que se encuentra en dificultad. Queridos hermanos y hermanas: les exhorto a descubrir en cada pobre que encuentran lo que él realmente necesita; a no detenerse ante la primera necesidad material, sino a ir más allá para descubrir la bondad escondida en sus corazones, prestando atención a su cultura y a sus maneras de expresarse, y así poder entablar un verdadero diálogo fraternal. No olviden nunca que «la peor discriminación que sufren los pobres es la falta de atención espiritual» (ibíd., 200). Los pobres tienen necesidad de Dios, de su amor hecho visible gracias a personas santas que viven junto a ellos, las que en la sencillez de su vida expresan y ponen de manifiesto la fuerza del amor cristiano. Dios se vale de muchos caminos y de instrumentos infinitos para llegar al corazón de las personas. A veces se requiere poco para devolver la esperanza: basta con detenerse, sonreír, escuchar. Los pobres son personas a las que hay que ir a encontrar: son jóvenes y ancianos solos a los que se puede invitar a entrar en casa para compartir una comida; hombres, mujeres y niños que esperan una palabra amistosa. Los pobres nos salvan porque nos permiten encontrar el rostro de Jesucristo. A todas las comunidades cristianas y a cuantos sienten la necesidad de llevar esperanza y consuelo a los pobres, pido que se comprometan para que esta Jornada Mundial y día de colaboración con la Campaña de Desarrollo Humano pueda reforzar en muchos la voluntad de colaborar activamente para que nadie se sienta privado de cercanía y solidaridad. Que nos acompañen las palabras del profeta que anuncia un futuro distinto: «A vosotros, los que teméis mi nombre, os iluminará un sol de justicia y hallaréis salud a su sombra» (Mal 3,20).

Fr. Feccia's Reflection

Trentaquattresima domenica del T. O. — Festa di Cristo Re.

Il Concilio Vaticano II ha diviso la Liturgia della Parola domenincale in un ciclo di tre anni: Anno "A" (S.Matteo); Anno "B", San Luca; Anno "C" san Marco—San Giovanni.

"Questi è il re dei Giudei" In Luca si tratta di una semplice iscrizione, In Matteo e Marco i motivi di condanna, in Giovanni di una affermazione contestata. In ogni caso quale abisso in quella formula e lo spettacolo di impotenza del crocifisso, tra la salvezza che alcuni attendevano da lui e la realtà di un condannato incapace di salvare se stesso!

Per Luca Gesù "in croce, fatto oggetto di scherno e di ingiurie è il prototipo del giusto ingiuriato, perseguitato, martirizzato dagli empi che gli lanciano la loro sfida: «se tu sei il re del Giudei, salva te stesso.”

Salvare è la parola chiave di questo brano. I capi dei acerdoti, i soldati, lo deridono Crocifisso accanto lui mettono in dubbio la sua Potenza regale, eppure Gesù è il Salvatore potrebbe salvare stesso stesso «e anche noi» Ma come comprenderlo senza convertirci? Soltanto un capovolgimento radicale di noi stessi ci permetterà di cogliere, nella fede, il misteso della croce di Cristo.

Riferendo le reazioni dei due malfattori condannati al medesimo suplizio, l'evangelista mette in luce gli atteggiamenti che è possibile assumere di fronte al messia.: il primo perde se sesso bestemmiando quel re da farsa, mentre il secondo si volge verso di lui per opera del quale abbiamo la redenzine, la remissione dei peccati» (Col. 1,14). E Gesù che fin dalla tentazione nel deserto ha sempre rifiutato qualsiasi manifestazione di potenza a proprio vantaggio, dimostra ora di poter salvare chi ripone in lu la propri fiducia. «Oggi sarai con me in paradiso» «Oggi» nel tempo del regno che già ha fatto irruzione nel mondo nella persona di Gesù. Il solo che possa salvare (Atti 4,12) Gurdando la croce siamo abbastana consapevoli di questo?

La morte stessa non potrà separarci dalla città eterna «con Gesù». All'ombra della croce, infatti, si radica la signoria del Cristo e si raduna la Chiesa comunità di malfattori chiamati anch'essi alla salvezza.

Nell croce la gioia — La passione del Cristo, in Luca, non è drmatica come negli altri evangelisti: è pervasa costantemente da ottimismo. Così sotto la croce l'ostilità ironica dei capi si oppone alla contemplazione muta del popolo: non è possibile che dopo aver speso una vita spesa per il popolo, per gli indifesi, per i diseredati, questi ora lo prendono in giro: ma Dio regna attraverso la croce del suo Figlio.

AVVENTO

Oggi con la festa di Cristo Re, concludiamo l'anno liturgico, vi invitiamo a impegnarvi con fede e preghiera a cominciare il tempo dell'avvento in preparazione al Santo Natale. Rimane aperto l'invito a scegliere una mattina per riunirci a pregare, riflettere e condividere un caffè. Scogliete il giorno. Grazie.
