
After the solemn mass, the Madonna leaves church for the first part of the street procession, returning to the church grounds for the field mass at noon. Following the field mass, the procession resumes, returning to the church late in the afternoon. Benediction follows.