THE SCALABRINIAN MISSIONARIES AT MOUNT CARMEL SINCE 1905.

humilitas

Our Lady of Mt Carmel is served by the Congregation of the Missionaries of St. Charles Scalabrinians. We are a community of Catholic religious serving migrants and refugees of different cultures, religions and ethnicities in 32 countries.

The Congregation was founded in Italy on November 28, 1887 by Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini (1839-1905), bishop of Piacenza, Italy.

Our missionary focus is to be migrants with the migrants and to be in mission with people on the move, with a special priority for the poorest and neediest migrants.

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL — MISSION STATEMENT

We are a faith community bound by the Grace of God the Father who adopted us all as beloved children through Baptism. We journey as brothers and sisters inspired in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, nourished with the Eucharist and strengthened by the love of the Holy Spirit. Encouraged in the practice of our Catholic Tradition we experience and honor the maternal protection of Our Lady of Mount Carmel while joyfully celebrating the religious practices of our ancestors in Faith. Heartened by the zealous ministry of the Missionaries of St. Charles (Scalabrinian) we strive to create a welcoming space where justice for all and the well-being of God's people become the inspiration in our efforts to build God's Kingdom.

The Most Holy Trinity

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. We say these words as we make the sign of the cross, the sign of God's saving love for us in Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit. God who created the heavens, earth, and all who dwell in it. Jesus Christ, through whom we are offered salvation and peace. The Holy Spirit, who breathes life, leads us to the truth, and strengthens us to live as God's holy people. On this Solemnity, let us pause to reflect upon the mystery of the Holy Trinity, three persons in one God. As we name the mystery, may we come to know God's love more deeply and live it more profoundly.

PERCEIVE WHAT CANNOT BE SEEN

Have you ever paused on a clear night to look up at the stars, or taken time to notice the splendor of spring flowers, the changing colors of the autumn leaves, or the still beauty of a snow-covered landscape? Such moments of quiet reflection may lead us to a powerful sense of wonder. The same God who created the stars, flowers, trees, and snow created each of us. In sensing God's presence in the beauty that surrounds us, we may be filled with awe in perceiving what cannot be seen. Moments of wonder and awe may take us by surprise. It may be invisible, yet in these moments we see the hand of God.

LOOK WITH EYES OF FAITH

Not only in the beauty of God's creation do we sense the presence of the Lord. In times of prayer, especially the celebration of the Eucharist, we are strengthened in faith to be assured of the mystery of the triune God. The Holy Spirit guides us to the truth--the truth of who God is and who we are in God's sight. Even in times of great trial, we endure and find hope in the mystery of Christ's love--Jesus, who gave his life for us on the cross and who rose in glory is with us in times of wonder and in moments of difficulty. We see the love of God in the acts of love of others and when we act as Christ's people in service and care for others. We grow in the capacity to see with the eyes of faith, eyes that recognize God's grace and are ready to respond by sharing the love of God, Father, Son, and Spirit, in the world.

Human Trafficking: What Would You Do in These Scenarios?

By Kim Robinson, Ph.D.

Human trafficking is a reprehensible crime, and during times of crisis, it thrives as a business when traffickers adapt quickly to opportunities that arise as a result of the crisis. For instance, when schools and daycares close, parents are forced to work from home or leave kids in less than ideal environments for supervision during work hours. This often leads to an increase in screen time with less supervision as parents attempt to juggle employment requirements while being full-time caregivers.

An environment such as this can create new opportunities for traffickers as they have increasingly been recruiting their victims online. Factor in the isolation that comes from school closings and sequestration from society, and traffickers will prey upon children's need for companionship and guidance to manipulate them. The U.S. National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) reported a 98.66 percent increase in online enticement reports between January and September 2020 compared to the same period in 2019, and reports to their CyberTipline doubled to 1.6 million.[1]

During a recent presentation this author conducted, someone posed the question, "If there are nearly 46 million adults and children languishing in modern slavery across the globe, what significant impact can I, as an individual, make to mitigate the exploitation of these poor souls?" My response mimics the recommendations that law enforcement tell us when they are asked the same question: "Be a good witness. Notice, record with your cell phone, and recall the details of what you are seeing."[2] If you are witnessing something concerning unfold in front of you, call 911 or local law enforcement. Do not attempt to intervene yourself, for your own safety and the safety of the possible victims. Traffickers view the people they exploit as financial assets, and they are not usually willing to forfeit their "property" or "investment" without a fight. This awareness is not to scare anyone, but it is meant to spread the truth and provide a way for adults and vulnerable youth to look for red flags and bear in mind the reality of human trafficking while still enjoying life. Please contact the National Human Trafficking Hotline (888-373-7888) into your phone so that you can make that call when the need arises. They operate 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and you can call anonymously. Translation services are available in over 200 languages. The most common call to the hotline is from a community member who is suspicious about a situation.[4]

La Santísima Trinidad

En el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. Decimos estas palabras mientras nos santiguamos, el signo del amor salvador de Dios por nosotros en Jesucristo a través del poder del Espíritu Santo. Dios que creó los cielos, la tierra y todos los que la habitan. Jesucristo, por quien se nos ofrece la salvación y la paz. El Espíritu Santo, que infunde vida, nos conduce a la verdad y nos fortalece para vivir como pueblo santo de Dios. En esta solemnidad, detengámonos a reflexionar sobre el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad, tres personas en un solo Dios. Al nombrar el misterio, que conozcamos más profundamente el amor de Dios y lo vivamos más profundamente.

PERCIBIR LO QUE NO SE VE

¿Alguna vez te has detenido en una noche despejada para mirar las estrellas, o te has tomado el tiempo para observar el esplendor de las flores de primavera, los colores cambiantes de las hojas de otoño o la belleza inmóvil de un paisaje cubierto de nieve? Esos momentos de reflexión silenciosa pueden llevarnos a un poderoso sentimiento de asombro. El mismo Dios que creó las estrellas, las flores, los árboles y la nieve nos creó a cada uno de nosotros. Al sentir la presencia de Dios en la belleza que nos rodea, podemos llenarnos de asombro al percibir lo que no se puede ver. Los momentos de asombro y admiración pueden tomarnos por sorpresa. Puede ser invisible, pero en esos momentos vemos la mano de Dios.

MIRAR CON OJOS DE FE

No sólo en la belleza de la creación de Dios sentimos la presencia del Señor. En los momentos de oración, especialmente en la celebración de la Eucaristía, nos fortalecemos en la fe para estar seguros del misterio del Dios trino. El Espíritu Santo nos guía hacia la verdad: la verdad de quién es Dios y quiénes somos nosotros a los ojos de Dios. Incluso en tiempos de gran prueba, soportamos y encontramos esperanza en el misterio del amor de Cristo: Jesús, que dio su vida por nosotros en la cruz y que resucitó en la gloria, está con nosotros en tiempos de asombro y en momentos de dificultad. Vemos el amor de Dios en los actos de amor de los demás y cuando actuamos como pueblo de Cristo en el servicio y la atención a los demás. Crecemos en la capacidad de ver con los ojos de la fe, ojos que reconocen la gracia de Dios y están dispuestos a responder compartiendo el amor de Dios, Padre, Hijo y Espíritu, en el mundo.

La Santissima Trinità

Nel nome del Padre, e del Figlio e dello Spirito Santo. Diciamo queste parole mentre facciamo il segno della croce, il segno dell'amore salvifico di Dio per noi in Gesù Cristo mediante la potenza dello Spirito Santo. Dio che ha creato i cieli, la terra e tutti coloro che in essa abitano. Gesù Cristo, per mezzo del quale ci viene offerta la salvezza e la pace. Lo Spirito Santo, che respira la vita, ci conduce alla verità e ci rafforza per vivere come il popolo santo di Dio. In questa solennità soffermiamoci a riflettere sul mistero della Santissima Trinità, tre persone in un solo Dio. Nel nominare il mistero, possiamo conoscere più profondamente l'amore di Dio e viverlo più profondamente.

PERCEPIRE CIÒ CHE NON SI VEDE

Ti sei mai fermato in una notte limpida per guardare le stelle, o ti sei mai preso del tempo per notare lo splendore dei fiori primaverili, i colori cangianti delle foglie autunnali o la bellezza immobile di un paesaggio innevato? Tali momenti di tranquilla riflessione possono condurci a un potente senso di meraviglia. Lo stesso Dio che ha creato le stelle, i fiori, gli alberi e la neve ha creato ognuno di noi. Percependo la presenza di Dio nella bellezza che ci circonda, possiamo essere pieni di stupore nel percepire ciò che non può essere visto. Momenti di meraviglia e stupore possono coglierci di sorpresa. Può essere invisibile, eppure in questi momenti vediamo la mano di Dio.

GUARDA CON GLI OCCHI DI FEDE

Non solo nella bellezza della creazione di Dio sentiamo la presenza del Signore. Nei momenti di preghiera, specialmente nella celebrazione dell'Eucaristia, siamo rafforzati nella fede per essere certi del mistero del Dio uno e trino. Lo Spirito Santo ci guida alla verità, la verità su chi è Dio e chi siamo noi agli occhi di Dio. Anche nei momenti di grande prova, sopportiamo e troviamo speranza nel mistero dell'amore di Cristo: Gesù, che ha dato la vita per noi sulla croce e che è risorto nella gloria, è con noi nei momenti di meraviglia e di difficoltà. Vediamo l'amore di Dio negli atti di amore degli altri e quando agiamo come popolo di Cristo nel servizio e nella cura degli altri. Cresciamo nella capacità di vedere con gli occhi della fede, occhi che riconoscono la grazia di Dio e sono pronti a rispondere condividendo l'amore di Dio, Padre, Figlio e Spirito, nel mondo.
