THE SCALABRINIAN MISSIONARIES
AT MOUNT CARMEL SINCE 1905.

Our Lady of Mt Carmel is served by the Congregation of the Missionaries of St. Charles Scalabrinians.

We are a community of Catholic religious serving migrants and refugees of different cultures, religions and ethnicities in 32 countries.

The Congregation was founded in Italy
on November 28, 1887
by Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini (1839-1905), bishop of Piacenza, Italy.

Our missionary focus is to be migrants
with the migrants and to be in mission
with people on the move,
with a special priority for the poorest and neediest migrants.

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL — MISSION STATEMENT

We are a faith community bound by the Grace of God the Father who adopted us all as beloved children through Baptism. We journey as brothers and sisters inspired in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, nourished with the Eucharist and strengthened by the love of the Holy Spirit. Encouraged in the practice of our Catholic Tradition we experience and honor the maternal protection of Our Lady of Mount Carmel while joyfully celebrating the religious practices of our ancestors in Faith. Heartened by the zealous ministry of the Missionaries of St. Charles (Scalabrinian) we strive to create a welcoming space where justice for all and the well-being of God's people become the inspiration in our efforts to build God's Kingdom.

NUESTRA SEÑORA DEL MONTE CARMELO — VISIÓN

Somos una comunidad de fe vinculada por la Gracia de Dios Padre que nos ha adoptado como hijos amados por el Bautismo. Caminamos como hermanos y hermanas inspirados en el Evangelio de Jesucristo nutridos con la Eucaristía y fortalecidos por el amor del Espíritu Santo. Alentados en la práctica de nuestra Tradición Católica, experimentamos y honramos la protección materna de Nuestra Señora del Monte Carmelo, celebrando alegremente las prácticas religiosas de nuestros ancestros en la Fe. Animados por el celo ministerial de los Misioneros de San Carlos (Scalabrinianos) nos esforzamos por crear un espacio de bienvenida donde la justicia para todos y el bienestar del pueblo de Dios nos inspiran en nuestros esfuerzos para construir el Reino de Dios.

NOSTRA SIGNORA DEL MONTE CARMELO - VISIONE

Siamo una comunità di fede circondata dalla grazia di Dio Padre che ci ha adottato come figli amati attraverso il Battesimo. Camminiamo come fratelli e sorelle, ispirati dal Vangelo di Gesù Cristo, nutriti con l'Eucaristia, e fortificati dall'amore dallo Spirito Santo. Rimaniamo incoraggiati nella pratica della nostra Tradizione Cattolica, sperimentiamo ed onoriamo la protezione materna della Nostra Signora del Monte Carmelo, celebrando con gioia le pratiche religiose dei nostri antenati nella Fede. Animati dallo zelo ministeriale dei Missionari di San Carlo (Scalabriniani), cerchiamo di creare uno spazio di accoglienza, Dove la giustizia per tutti e il benessere del popolo di Dio diventa l'ispirazione nel nostro lavoro per costruire il Regno di Dio.

XXXI SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME—C

The story of Zacchaeus has always fascinated people who hear it. Interesting details abound. Zacchaeus is a short man, who is looked down upon. He is an outsider, even a threat, no doubt disliked by the other people in the town of Jericho because he is a tax collector and, therefore, a collaborator with the occupying Roman army. He climbs a sycamore tree to see Jesus. But Jesus sees him first and calls him down. They encounter each other, and—as happens so often when people meet Jesus—Zacchaeus' life is turned around. He changes dramatically.

This Gospel passage opens as a story of exclusion, but Jesus rewrites it to be a story of improbable welcome. As such, we come to know Jesus more deeply and to better understand ourselves in relationship to him. One particular aspect is especially striking. While Jesus, the teacher and the holy one, welcomes Zacchaeus, the sinner and the outsider by calling to him: "Come down!", Zacchaeus ends up welcoming Jesus: "Yes, come to my house and eat with me." They welcome each other, and it is improbable that it should happen.

This welcoming is far more than a gesture of hospitality. Jesus is receiving Zacchaeus into his life, and Zacchaeus, similarly, is receiving Jesus into his life. Out of that encounter, Jesus can say these momentous words: "Today salvation has come to this house."

When we let Jesus receive or welcome us and when we welcome him, our lives turn around—as it did for Zacchaeus: "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone, I shall repay it four times over."

We may wonder: Does any of this apply to us? Today? In our life situation? In fact, it does. Many of us can point to a deeply personal moment when Jesus welcomed us and we welcomed him. That encounter has a deeply transformative impact on us. But often, in our everyday life, this welcoming and receiving happens through each other. The Word of God tells us that we meet the Lord, and he meets us in our sisters and brothers, especially those who are in need. Whenever we serve and support each other, we welcome the Lord who first received us. And over time, these encounters transform us.

Today in Chicagoland, there are people to meet, to welcome, and to help. Like many of our ancestors, they have come to us from distant places and out of troubled circumstances and with hopeful aspirations of a better life for their families and children. They are the migrants, refugees, and asylum seekers on our doorstep who are in deep need of help and support. They may not stand directly in front of us, but they are present. They are people whom we can welcome and help. We can change their lives, but our outreach to them can also transform our lives.

One way to help and welcome these sisters and brothers in need is through a special collection which will be taken up throughout the Archdiocese next weekend. These funds will allow the Catholic community to welcome these newcomers with respect and dignity. Join me in making an offering of support and help that expresses our welcome.

In the Eucharist we are about to celebrate, Jesus looks to us and welcomes us. We see him and welcome him in return because we know he has changed our lives. This story of welcome has been happening for generations here in Chicago. It is our story and the story of our ancestors. Let us continue to live in this story, so that as he welcomes us, we may continue to welcome one another, especially those among us in deep need.
