OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL — MISSION STATEMENT

We are a faith community bound by the Grace of God the Father who adopted us all as beloved children through Baptism. We journey as brothers and sisters inspired in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, nourished with the Eucharist and strengthened by the love of the Holy Spirit. Encouraged in the practice of our Catholic Tradition we experience and honor the maternal protection of Our Lady of Mount Carmel while joyfully celebrating the religious practices of our ancestors in Faith. Heartened by the zealous ministry of the Missionaries of St. Charles (Scalabrinian) we strive to create a welcoming space where justice for all and the well-being of God's people become the inspiration in our efforts to build God's Kingdom.

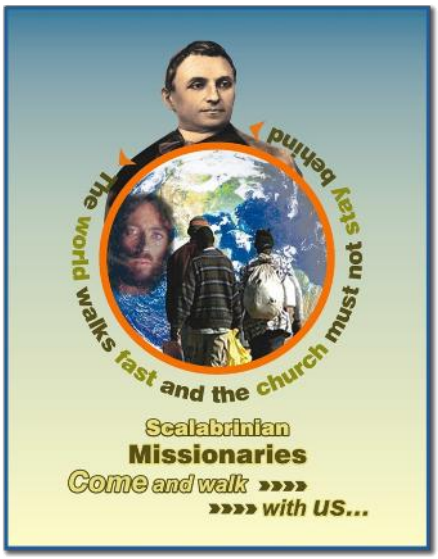
Pope's Vocations Day message: "Pilgrims of hope, builders of peace"

Pope Francis releases his message for the 61st World Day of Prayer for Vocations, celebrated on April 21, and urges Christians to welcome our shared vocation to sow the seeds of hope and peace in our world. By Devin Watkins

Pope Francis offered that summary of our Christian vocation in his message for the 61st World Day of Prayer for Vocations, which the Church marks on April 21, 2024.

Released on Tuesday, the Pope's message focuses on the theme: "Called to sow seeds of hope and to build peace." The Holy Father noted that all Christians are called to welcome our God-given vocation to serve Him in the world, whether it be through the consecrated life, the priesthood, marriage, or even as a single person.

Gratitude, he said, should characterize World Vocations Day celebrations, as we recall the countless Christians who serve God in all walks of life. He especially invited young people to make room for God, so that they might find happiness in His call, which always respects our freedom. "Let Jesus draw you to Himself," said the Pope. "Bring Him your important questions by reading the Gospels; let Him challenge you by His presence, which always provokes in us a healthy crisis."



Synodal aspect to praying for vocations

Pope Francis went on to invite Christians to be "pilgrims of hope" as the Church journeys toward the 2025 Jubilee. Amid the vast variety of charisms and vocations in the Church, God's people are guided by the Holy Spirit and form the Body of Christ as members of a great family and many parts of a whole, he said.

"In this sense," he added, "the World Day of Prayer for Vocations has a synodal character: amid the variety of our charisms, we are called to listen to one another and to journey together in order to acknowledge them and to discern where the Spirit is leading us for the benefit of all."

The Pope also urged everyone to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life, so that the Lord may "send out laborers into His harvest." As the Church prepares for the Jubilee with a Year of Prayer, Christians should engage daily in a prayer that listens for the voice of God and helps us become "pilgrims of hope and builders of peace." Pilgrims of hope and builders of peace Turning to the heart of his message, Pope Francis recalled that Christian pilgrimage means keeping our eyes, minds, and hearts fixed on our goal—which is Christ—and set out every day anew.

"Our pilgrimage on this earth is far from a pointless journey or aimless wandering," he said. "On the contrary, each day, by responding to God's call, we try to take every step needed to advance towards a new world where people can live in peace, justice, and love." The goal of every Christian vocation, added the Pope, is to become "men and women of hope," bearing the Gospel message of hope and peace amid countless crises and "the baneful specter of a third world war fought piecemeal." Christ's Resurrection, noted Pope Francis, is the force that drives our Christian hope and allows us to face the challenges our world present us. Christian passion for life. In conclusion, the Pope invited Christians to "rise up" and awaken from our indifference by embracing our vocation and letting Christ guide our steps. "Let us be passionate about life," he said, "and commit ourselves to caring lovingly for those around us, in every place where we live."

Mensaje del Papa para la Jornada Vocacional: "Peregrinos de esperanza, constructores de paz"

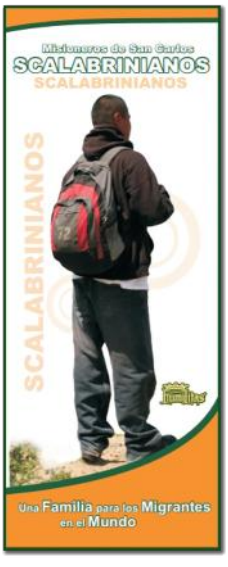
El Papa Francisco lanza su mensaje para la 61ª Jornada Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones, que se celebra el 21 de abril, e insta a los cristianos a acoger nuestra vocación compartida para sembrar las semillas de esperanza y paz en nuestro mundo. Por Devin Watkins

El Papa Francisco ofreció ese resumen de nuestra vocación cristiana en su mensaje para la 61ª Jornada Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones, que la Iglesia conmemora el 21 de abril de 2024. El mensaje del Papa, publicado el martes, se centra en el tema: "Llamados a sembrar semillas de esperanza y a construir la paz". El Santo Padre señaló que todos los cristianos estamos llamados a acoger la vocación que Dios nos ha dado de servirle en el mundo, ya sea a través de la vida consagrada, el sacerdocio, el matrimonio o incluso como solteros. La gratitud, dijo, debe caracterizar las celebraciones de la Jornada Mundial de las Vocaciones, al recordar a los innumerables cristianos que sirven a Dios en todos los ámbitos de la vida. Invitó especialmente a los jóvenes a dejar espacio a Dios, para que encontraran la felicidad en su llamada, que siempre respeta nuestra libertad. "Dejad que Jesús os atraiga hacia Él", dijo el Papa. "Tráele tus preguntas importantes leyendo los Evangelios; deja que Él te desafíe con su presencia, que siempre provoca en nosotros una crisis saludable".

Aspecto sinodal de la oración por las vocaciones

El Papa Francisco invitó a los cristianos a ser "peregrinos de esperanza" en el camino de la Iglesia hacia el Jubileo de 2025. En medio de la gran variedad de carismas y vocaciones en la Iglesia, el pueblo de Dios es guiado por el Espíritu Santo y forma el Cuerpo de Cristo como miembros de una gran familia y muchas partes de un todo, dijo.

"En este sentido -añadió-, la Jornada Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones tiene un carácter sinodal: en medio de la variedad de nuestros carismas, estamos llamados a escucharnos unos a otros y a caminar juntos para reconocerlos y discernir hacia dónde nos lleva el Espíritu en beneficio de todos". El Papa también instó a todos a rezar por las vocaciones al sacerdocio y a la vida religiosa, para que el Señor pueda "enviar obreros a su mies". Mientras la Iglesia se prepara para el Jubileo con un Año de Oración, los cristianos deben participar diariamente en una oración que escuche la voz de Dios y nos ayude a convertirnos en "peregrinos de esperanza y constructores de paz". Peregrinos de esperanza y constructores de paz. Volviendo al corazón de su mensaje, el Papa Francisco recordó que la peregrinación cristiana significa mantener los ojos, la mente y el corazón fijos en nuestra meta, que es Cristo, y ponerse en camino cada día de nuevo. "Nuestra peregrinación en esta tierra está lejos de ser un viaje sin sentido o un vagabundeo sin rumbo", dijo. "Por el contrario, cada día, respondiendo a la llamada de Dios, tratamos de dar todos los pasos necesarios para avanzar hacia un mundo nuevo en el que las personas puedan vivir en paz, justicia y amor". El objetivo de toda vocación cristiana añadió el Papa, es convertirse en "hombres y mujeres de esperanza", llevando el mensaje evangélico de esperanza y paz en medio de innumerables crisis y "el fantasma pernicioso de una tercera guerra mundial librada a trozos".



La resurrección de Cristo señaló el Papa Francisco, es la fuerza que impulsa nuestra esperanza cristiana y nos permite enfrentar los desafíos que nuestro mundo nos presenta. Pasión cristiana por la vida. Para concluir, el Papa invitó a los cristianos a "levantarse" y despertar de nuestra indiferencia abrazando nuestra vocación y dejando que Cristo guíe nuestros pasos. "Seamos apasionados por la vida", dijo, "y comprometámonos a cuidar con amor a los que nos rodean, en cada lugar donde vivimos".

Messaggio del Papa per la Giornata delle Vocazioni: "Pellegrini di speranza, costruttori di pace"

Papa Francesco diffonde il suo messaggio per la 61ª Giornata Mondiale di Preghiera per le Vocazioni, celebrata il 21 aprile, ed esorta i cristiani ad accogliere la nostra comune vocazione a seminare i semi della speranza e della pace nel nostro mondo.Di Devin Watkins

Papa Francesco ha offerto questa sintesi della nostra vocazione cristiana nel suo messaggio per la 61ª Giornata Mondiale di Preghiera per le Vocazioni, che la Chiesa celebra il 21 aprile 2024.

Pubblicato martedì, il messaggio del Papa si concentra sul tema: "Chiamati a seminare semi di speranza e a costruire la pace". Il Santo Padre ha osservato che tutti i cristiani sono chiamati ad accogliere la vocazione che Dio ci ha dato di servirlo nel mondo, sia attraverso la vita consacrata, il sacerdozio, il matrimonio o anche come single. La gratitudine, ha detto, dovrebbe caratterizzare le celebrazioni della Giornata Mondiale delle Vocazioni, mentre ricordiamo gli innumerevoli cristiani che servono Dio in tutti i ceti sociali. Ha invitato in particolare i giovani a fare spazio a Dio, per trovare la felicità nella sua chiamata, che rispetta sempre la nostra libertà. "Lasciate che Gesù vi attiri a sé", ha detto il Papa. "Portategli le vostre domande importanti leggendo i Vangeli; lascia che Lui ti interroghi con la sua presenza, che provoca sempre in noi una sana crisi".

Aspetto sinodale della preghiera per le vocazioni

Papa Francesco ha poi invitato i cristiani ad essere "pellegrini di speranza" mentre la Chiesa cammina verso il Giubileo del 2025. In mezzo alla grande varietà di carismi e vocazioni nella Chiesa, il popolo di Dio è guidato dallo Spirito Santo e forma il Corpo di Cristo come membri di una grande famiglia e molte parti di un tutto, ha detto.

"In questo senso" - ha proseguito il Pontefice - "la Giornata Mondiale di Preghiera per le Vocazioni ha un carattere sinodale: nella varietà dei nostri carismi, siamo chiamati ad ascoltarci e a camminare insieme per riconoscerli e discernere dove lo Spirito ci conduce a beneficio di tutti".

Il Papa ha anche esortato tutti a pregare per le vocazioni al sacerdozio e alla vita religiosa, perché il Signore possa "mandare operai nella sua messe". Mentre la Chiesa si prepara al Giubileo con un Anno di preghiera, i cristiani dovrebbero impegnarsi quotidianamente in una preghiera che ascolti la voce di Dio e ci aiuti a diventare "pellegrini di speranza e costruttori di pace". Pellegrini di speranza e costruttori di pace. Rivolgendosi al cuore del suo messaggio, Papa Francesco ha ricordato che il pellegrinaggio cristiano significa tenere gli occhi, la mente e il cuore fissi sulla meta – che è Cristo – e ripartire ogni giorno di nuovo. "Il nostro pellegrinaggio su questa terra è ben lungi dall'essere un viaggio inutile o un vagabondaggio senza meta", ha detto. "Al contrario, ogni giorno, rispondendo alla chiamata di Dio, cerchiamo di fare ogni passo necessario per avanzare verso un mondo nuovo dove le persone possano vivere in pace, giustizia e amore". L'obiettivo di ogni vocazione cristiana, ha aggiunto il Papa, è quello di diventare "uomini e donne di speranza", portando il messaggio evangelico di speranza e di pace in mezzo a innumerevoli crisi e "lo spettro funesto di una terza guerra mondiale combattuta a pezzi". La risurrezione di Cristo, ha osservato Papa Francesco, è la forza che guida la nostra speranza cristiana e ci permette di affrontare le sfide che il nostro mondo ci presenta. Passione cristiana per la vita In conclusione, il Papa ha invitato i cristiani a "rialzarsi" e a risvegliarsi dalla nostra indifferenza, abbracciando la nostra vocazione e lasciando che sia Cristo a guidare i nostri passi. "Amiamoci alla vita", ha detto, "e impegniamoci a prenderci cura con amore di coloro che ci circondano, in ogni luogo in cui viviamo".

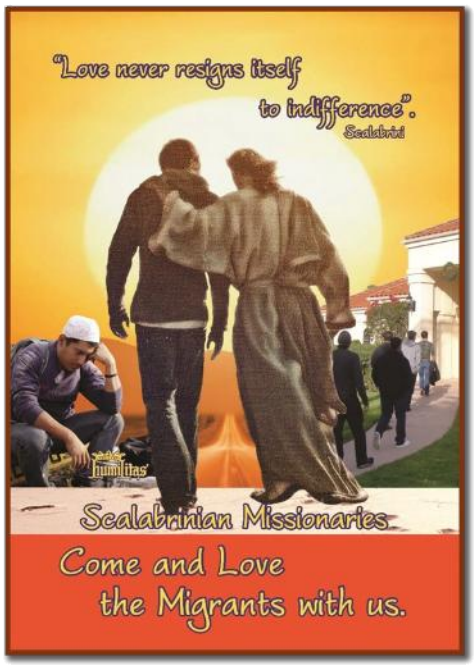
National Vocations Awareness Week Nov. 3 - 9

Materials to share with your community, including a letter from Cardinal Cupich, a prayer card, details for Holy Hours planned throughout the week around the Archdiocese, and a flyer for the annual "Who Will Fill These Shoes?" event on November 29.

What is National Vocation Awareness Week?

National Vocation Awareness Week, sponsored by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations, is designed to help promote vocation awareness. This annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States occurs on the first full week in November. NVAW is dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education. NVAW also emphasizes a renewal of our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations.



This is your invitation to learn more and to help us build a culture of vocations…

La Semana Nacional de Concientización sobre las Vocaciones (NVAW, por sus siglas en inglés), que tendrá lugar del 3 al 9 de noviembre de 2023, es una celebración anual de la Iglesia Católica de Estados Unidos que dura una semana, y que tiene el objetivo de promover, mediante la oración y la formación, las vocaciones al sacerdocio, al diaconado y a la vida consagrada, así como también el de renovar nuestras oraciones y apoyo por aquellos que están considerando alguna de estas vocaciones. La NVAW tuvo su comienzo en 1976, cuando los obispos estadounidenses designaron el domingo 28º del año para celebrarla. En 1997, esta celebración fue trasladada de fecha, para hacerla coincidir con la Fiesta del Bautismo del Señor, que cayó en el día 13 de enero de 2013. A partir de 2014, la NVAW fue trasladado a la primera semana completa de noviembre.

ORACIÓN FINAL

(Todos los días)

Dios omnipotente y lleno de misericordia, que nos has dado a San Juan Bautista Scalabrini, obispo, maestro insigne y solicito promotor de la justicia social, y lo has constituido padre y apóstol de los migrantes, concédenos por su intercesión las peticiones que hoy te hacemos, y concédenos también acoger fielmente sus enseñanzas e imitar su celo por la salvación de las almas. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos. Amén
